

Integrating Immigrants into the Eastern Ontario Labour Market

Dr. Leela Viswanathan and Lindsey Gradeen
Queen's University, School of Urban and Regional Planning

Our Path

1

What does it mean to integrate immigrants, as new talent, in the labour market?

2

Context and Research Design

3

Preliminary Findings

4

What comes next?

Integration of Immigrants...

“For me, it means a person who is a new Canadian or is an immigrant [who] moves to [our town] and knows that the support is here that’s going to keep them settled here in their own personal lives, help them develop a network of employers and [develop] opportunities to work with some actual opportunities to get interviews” - INTERVIEW participant, JULY 2012

Context | Kingston, Ontario

Context | Peterborough, Ontario

Context | Kingston and Peterborough

Total Population and Immigrant Population in Kingston and Peterborough Regions, 2006 and 2011

Name	Population 2011	Population 2006	Immigrants 2006 and (percentage relative to total population)
Kingston (CMA)	123,363	117,207	18,505 (15%)
South Frontenac (CSD)	18,113	18,227
Loyalist Township (CSD)	16,221	15,062
Frontenac Islands (CSD)	1,864	1,862
Peterborough (CMA)	118,975	116,570	10,800 (9.3%)
Kawartha Lakes (CA)	73,214	74,561

CMA = Census Metropolitan Area

CSD = Census Subdivisions

CA = Census Agglomeration

Research Design and Questions

BARRIERS

OPPORTUNITIES

WHAT

- labour market information is available?
- supports are in place for employers to retain and attract new talent?
- supports are in place for new talent?
- challenges and opportunities do employers face?
- challenges and opportunities does the region face?

Research Design and Questions

HOW is labour market information being used and applied?

- How ...
- are employers and job developers finding new talent and/or attracting immigrants?
 - are some employers fostering a diverse workplace environment?

Qualitative Research design

- Analyse regional and local documents and reports
 - Review literature
 - Face-to-face interviews
- Connections and Building Networks

Preliminary Findings

LABOUR MARKET INFORMATION (LMI)

“What is needed TODAY or next season, not five years from now?”

SUPPORTS

“Promoting local awareness and strategic development through immigration partnerships”

EMPLOYERS

“Immigrants are not necessarily differentiated from other forms of new talent”

Finally

PARTNERSHIPS AND WAYS OF CONNECTING

What comes next?

Go with the flow

Factors in our changing environment include:

cuts to supports and services/programs

shifting roles of government and funders

dynamic context of immigration policy

What comes next?

More interviews and interactions over Spring and Summer 2013

Plain language report in Spring 2014

Academic articles linking theory and practical examples

BUILD MORE CONNECTIONS

LAST WORD...

“As much as there may be supports for new immigrants to connect to the community, and that’s important... if they don’t or are not able to get into the labour market, then the rest of it [the “integration part”] is not sustainable”

— INTERVIEW participant, January 2013

Theory & Practice

Lynn de Montigny

Development officer

RDEE
Ontario

RDEE-ONT.CA

RDÉE Ontario is....

RDÉE
Ontario

RDEE-ONT.CA

Partner / Development Officer

Researcher & Practitioner

(Theory & Practice)

Finally, taking the next step...

Lynn de Montigny
WWW.RDEE-ONT.CA

RDEE
Ontario

RDEE-ONT.CA