NOTES: Curriculum incorporates the Global Leadership Competency Framework – Ann L. Gordon, 2019

- Slight modifications may be made on dates, locations and themes as necessary.
- Participants' life partner or significant other are invited and encouraged to participate in Seminars #3 and #6.
- Some seminars may include a professional development opportunity for all AALP Alumni.
- Participants are expected to make their own way to seminar locations and to the Ontario start of study tours.

Learning Opportunities:

A. Seminars: skills workshops, technology tours, knowledge/motivational lectures

Six seminars will include a mix of group work, visits to farms/organizations/industry/services and lectures by knowledge experts.

B. Zoom: Interactive and self-directed distance learning modules

Five 2.5 hour webinars will occur outside of seminars. These will build on seminar material and help to reinforce application of skills. They may also be used in part to share key events/projects amongst participants, organize fund raising activities, plan tour logistics and other items as the class decides, if time permits.

The program also involves participation in various web-based and/ or email assignments for seminar & study tour preparation and follow-up, discussion forums, conversations, project and activity planning with classmates, ROI office and curriculum team.

C. Projects: Issues analysis

This self-directed team project will provide participants with the opportunity to sharpen your analytical, problem solving, research, critical thinking, communications and planning skills while working on a project of importance to you and your AALP class members and to the agricultural, agri-food and rural community in Ontario.

D. AALP network: A lifetime of quality leadership opportunities

Your investment pays back dividends both while in the program and for the rest of your life. These opportunities include:

- Almost 500 AALP alumni provide connections across rural Ontario and in every ag sector and service across the full value chain. This has helped many AALP graduates make life decisions.
- Invitations to attend and participate in a variety of educational leadership opportunities and professional development sessions including the International Association of Programs for Agriculture Leaders.
- Invitations to social functions in association with AALP fund raising activities and seminars.
- The use of the AALP Logo on your business cards.
- Participation in a variety of current class activities such as AALP Curriculum, Networking and Recruitment teams, Dream Auction and or Stewart Gala Committee and the Rural Ontario Institute Board of Directors.
- Periodical professional leadership updates by email.

An OAC Alumni Membership and More.....

Advanced Agricultural Leadership Program graduates are presented with a University of Guelph certificate from the Office of Open Learning, an Award of Achievement from the Rural Ontario Institute and are eligible for membership in the Ontario Agricultural College (OAC) Alumni Association.
