

Participant Commitment Form

Please enter answers and spaces as needed so completed form is clear and can be photocopied.

"I, _____ (Participant's Name), am aware that the AALP participant tuition fee is approximately $11,000.00 - $12,000.00 and is payable to the University of Guelph, either by cheque, VISA or MasterCard.

I am aware that the cost of transportation to and from AALP seminars, study tour start and return points, and some meals are not included in the tuition fee.

If selected, I am willing to be a proactive Ambassador for AALP and assist with the fundraising activities and promotion both during and after my participation in AALP. I am aware that a variety of post-graduate opportunities may also be available to me.

I understand that participants must make a commitment to participate fully in ALL seminars, study tours, distance education/email and class activities.

I agree to set aside time outside of formal sessions in preparation for seminars and study tours, and to complete all projects and reading assignments assigned.

I understand that there is both a public and corporate investment in this program, and that as a graduate, I must make a commitment to provide leadership in the agricultural, food and rural community.

I give the Rural Ontario Institute permission to contact the references supplied. I understand that selection of applicants is the sole responsibility of the organization and program Advisory Committee.

By returning the completed application and participant commitment form, I hereby confirm that I understand and agree to all commitments if selected, and I hereby certify that the statements made in this application are true and complete."
