

Crowd Release/Notice of Filming and Photography

Welcome to the leadership lecture event! We are thrilled to host such an exciting event.

Please note, the event will be documented by film and photography crews. As this is a publicly celebrated event, your presence at the event implies informed consent to be recorded on film or photograph. Media captured during the event may be used for communication and/or promotional purposes by the organizers and guest speaker through digital and print media like websites, social media, news and advertising.

If you expressly do not wish to be recorded please notify the organizers so arrangements can be made.

We hope you enjoy this wonderful event in the company of your friends, colleagues and family!
