

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

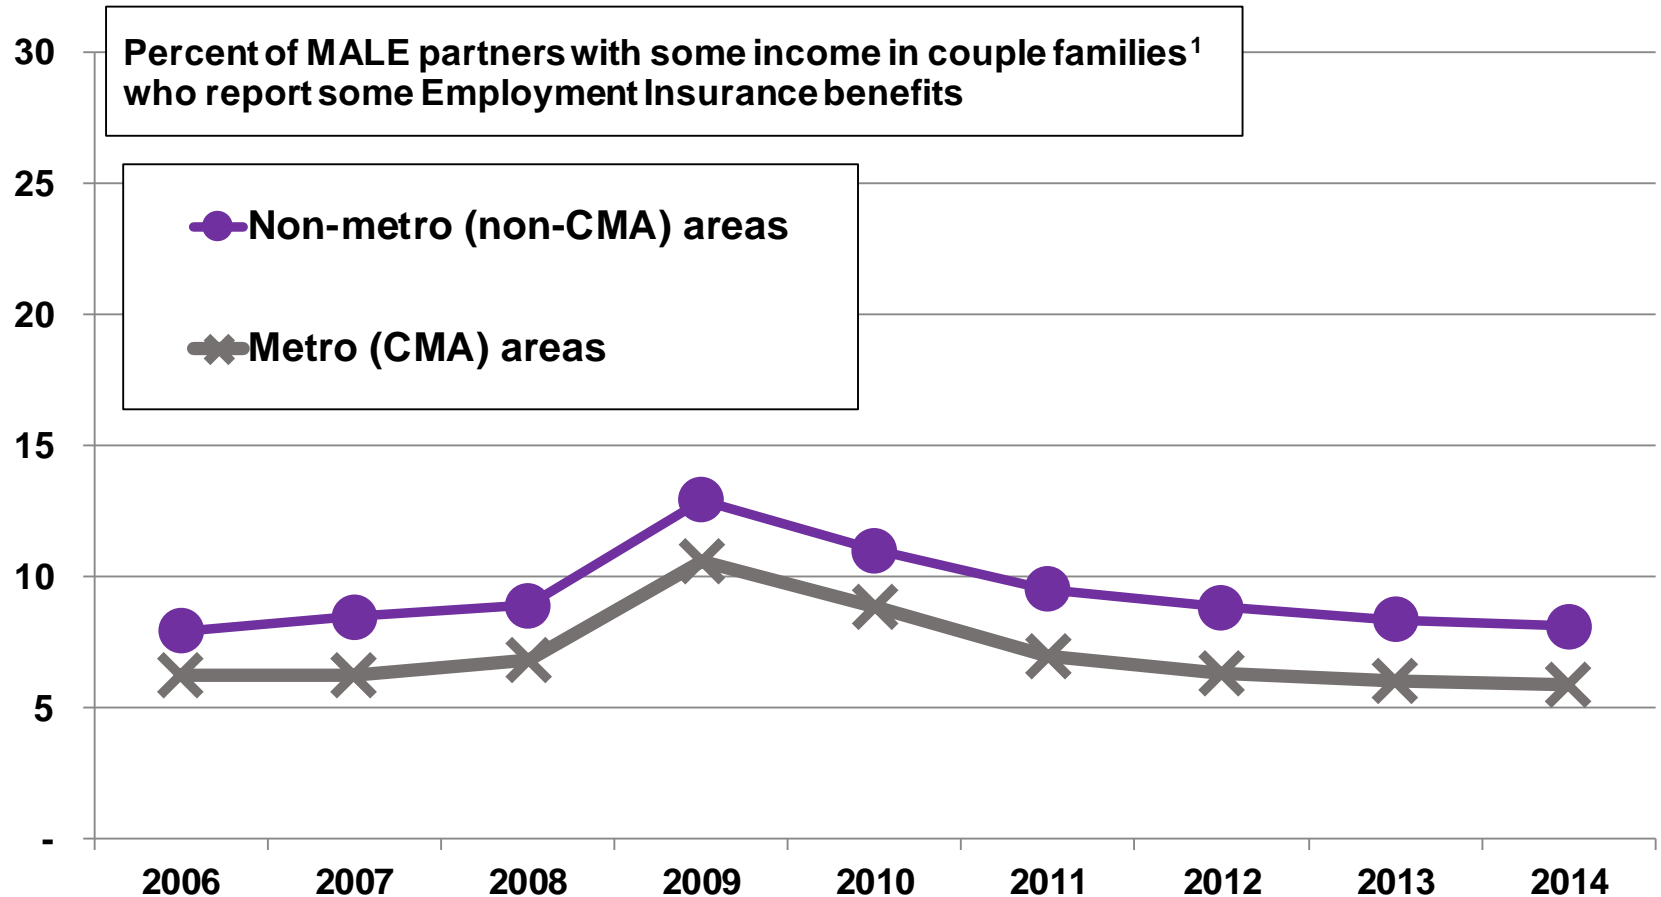

In non-metro Ontario, the percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits was 18% in 2014

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

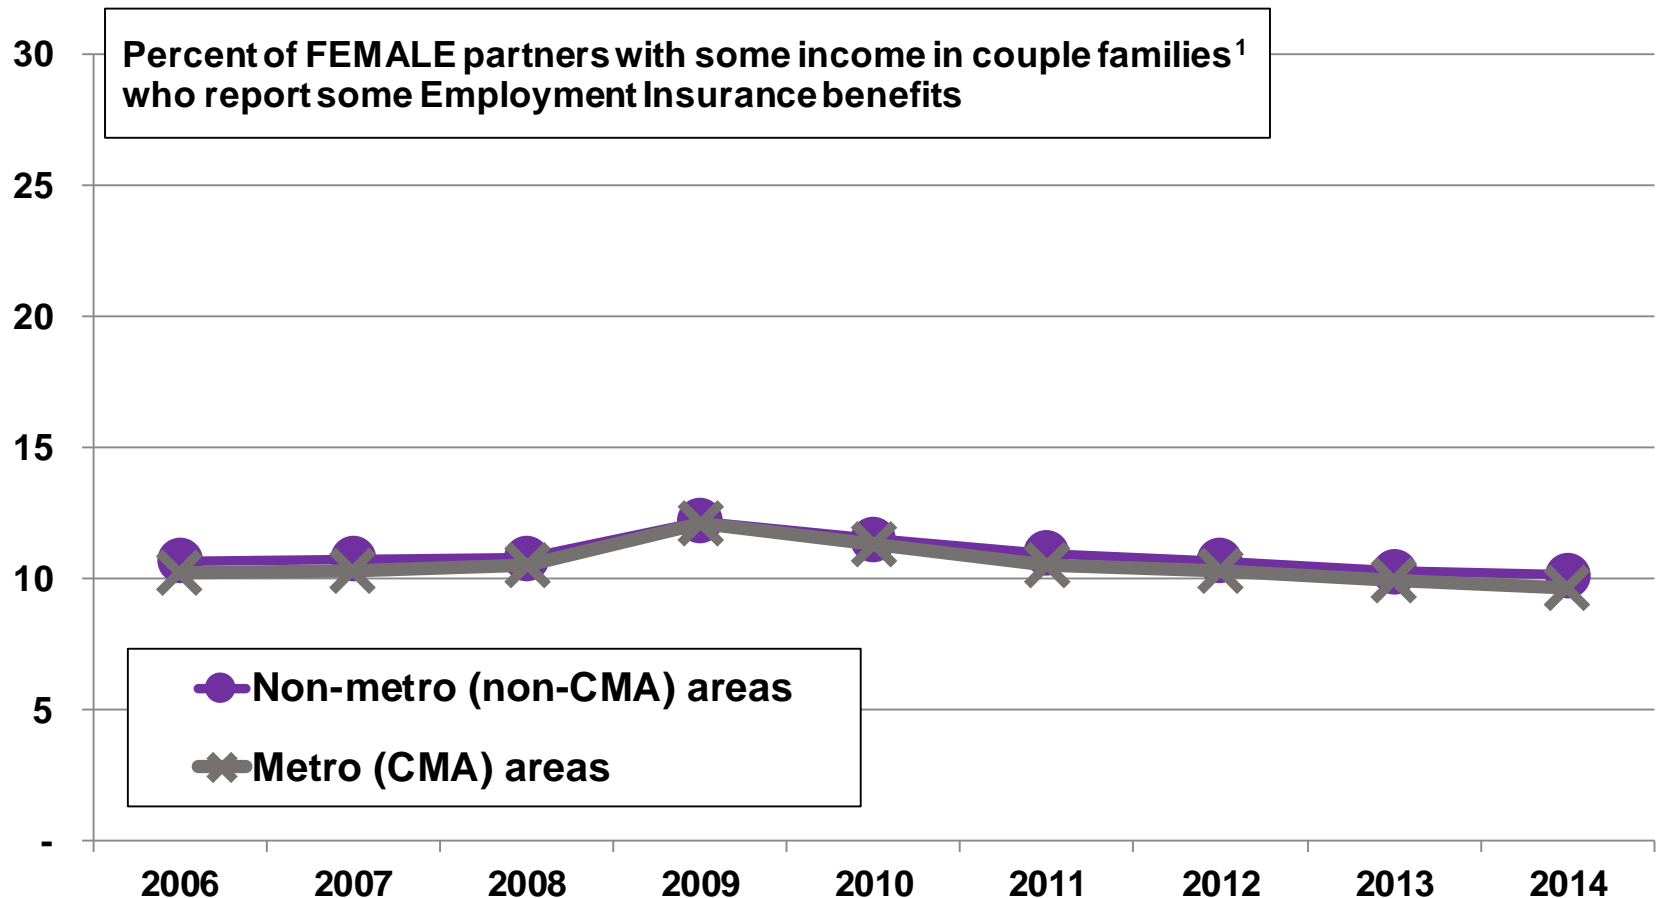

In non-metro Ontario, the percent of male partners in couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits was 8% in 2014

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

In non-metro Ontario, the percent of female partners in couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits was 10% in 2014

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

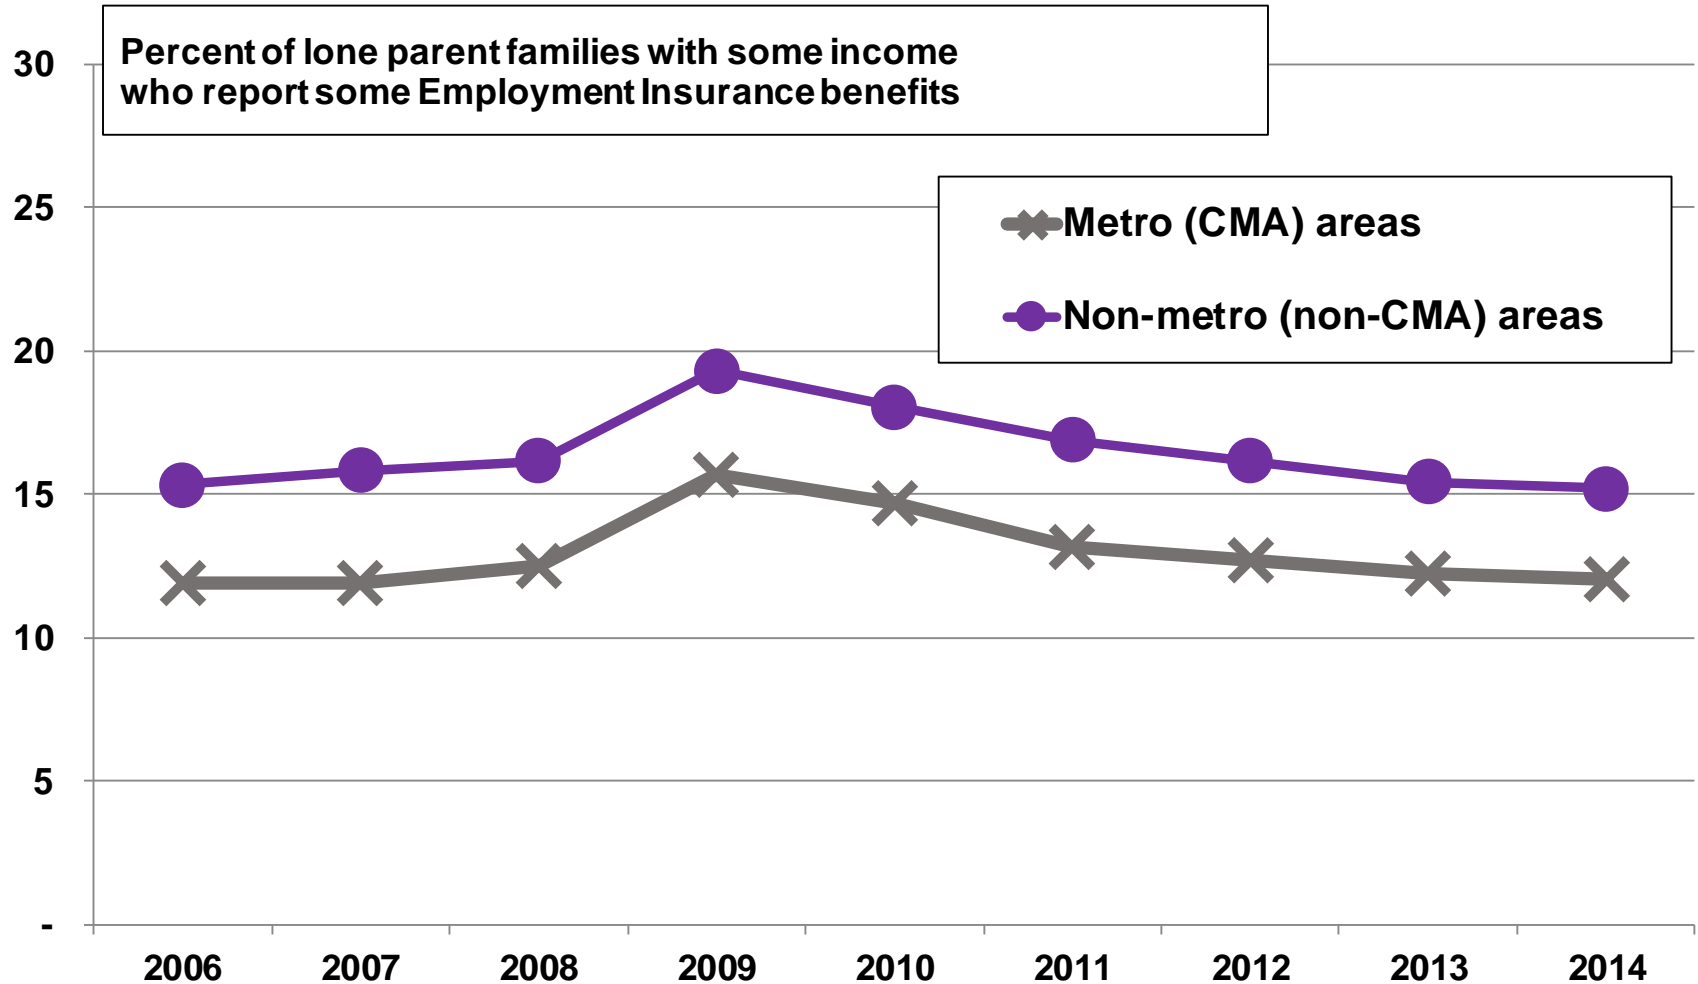

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

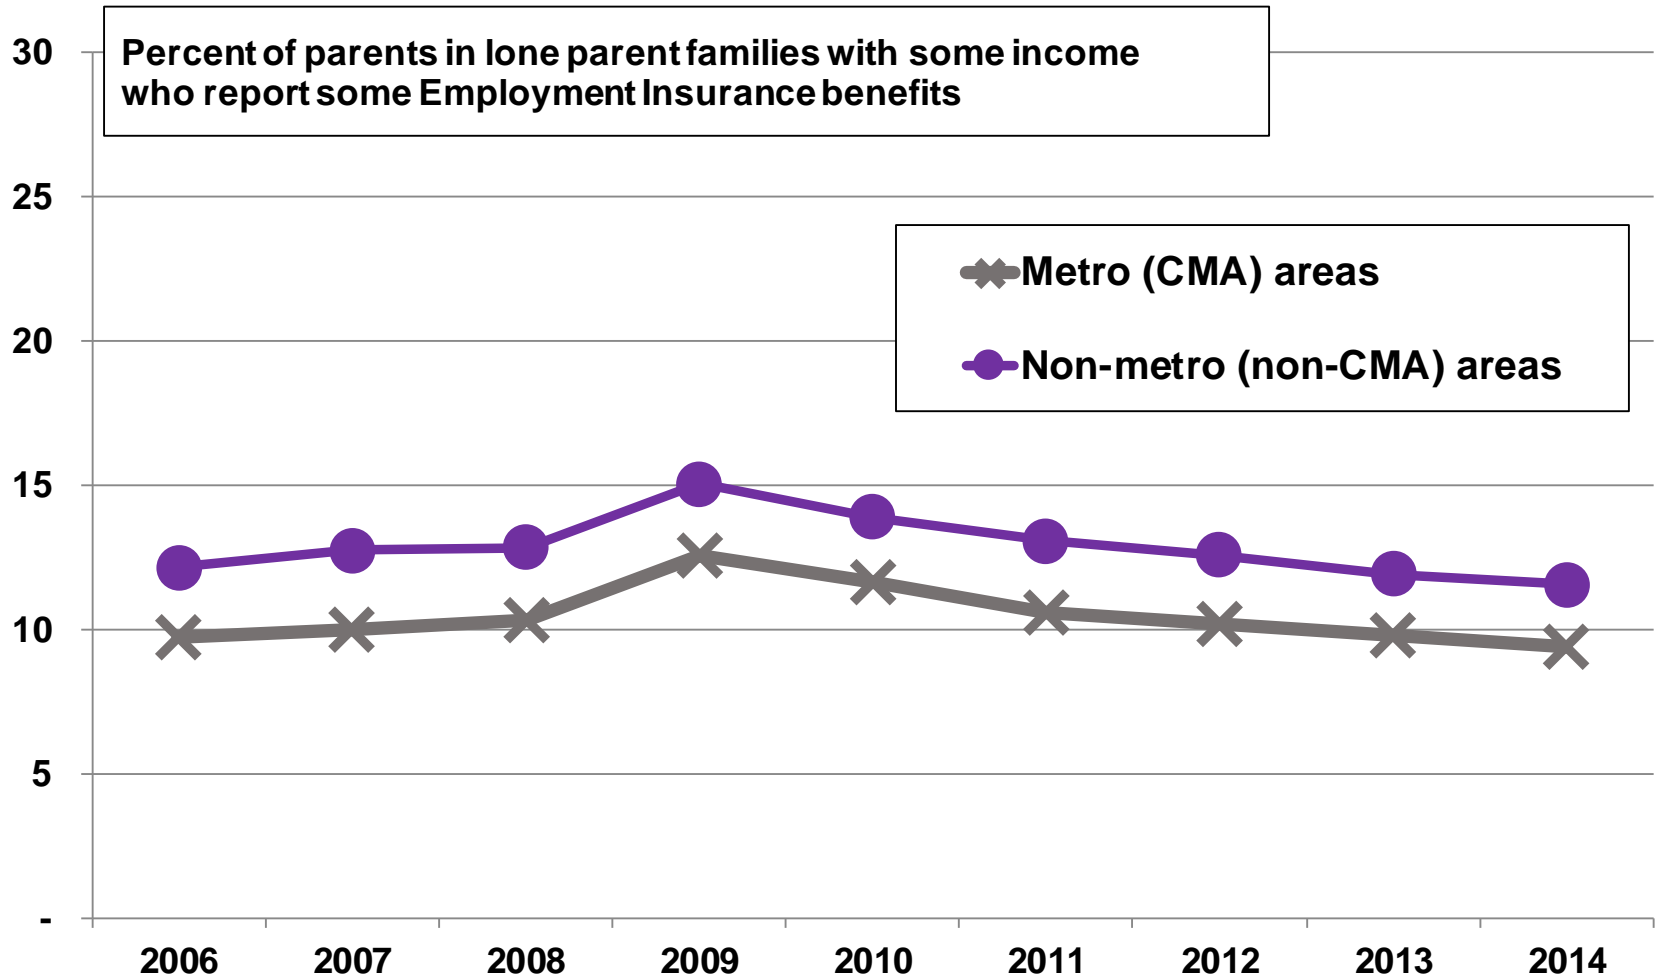

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

In non-metro Ontario, the percent of lone parent families with income who reported some Employment Insurance benefits was 15% in 2014

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

In non-metro Ontario, the percent of parents in lone parent families with income who reported some Employment Insurance benefits was 12% in 2014

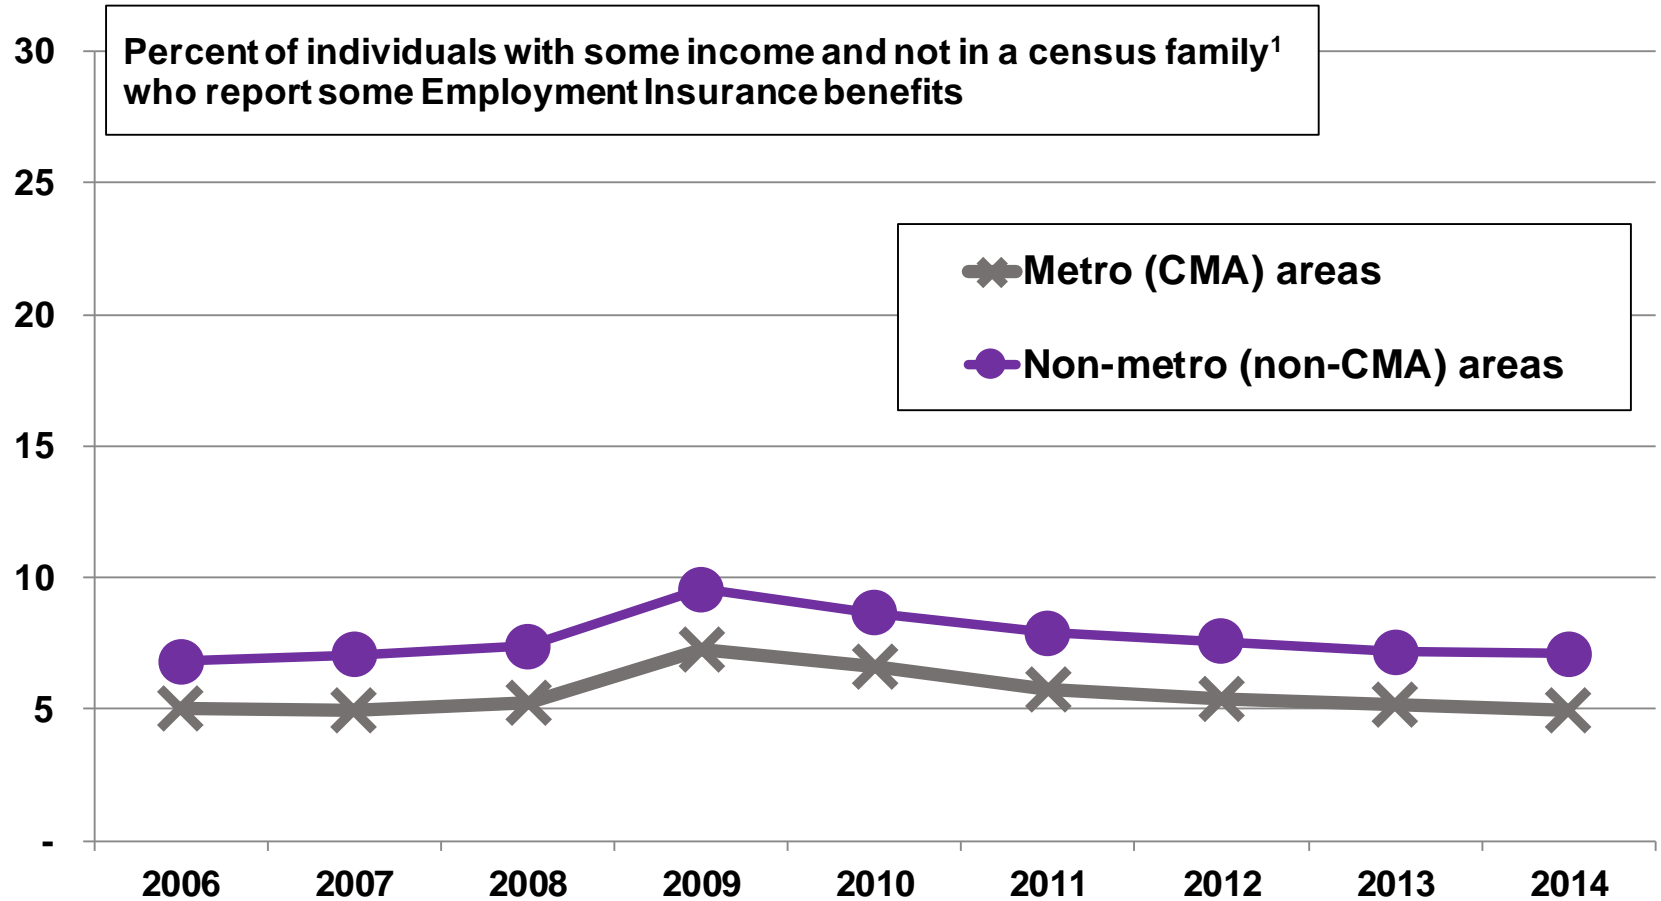

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

In non-metro Ontario, among individuals with income who are not in a census family¹, the percent who reported some Employment Insurance benefits was 7% in 2014

1. A census family consists a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children or lone parents with children.

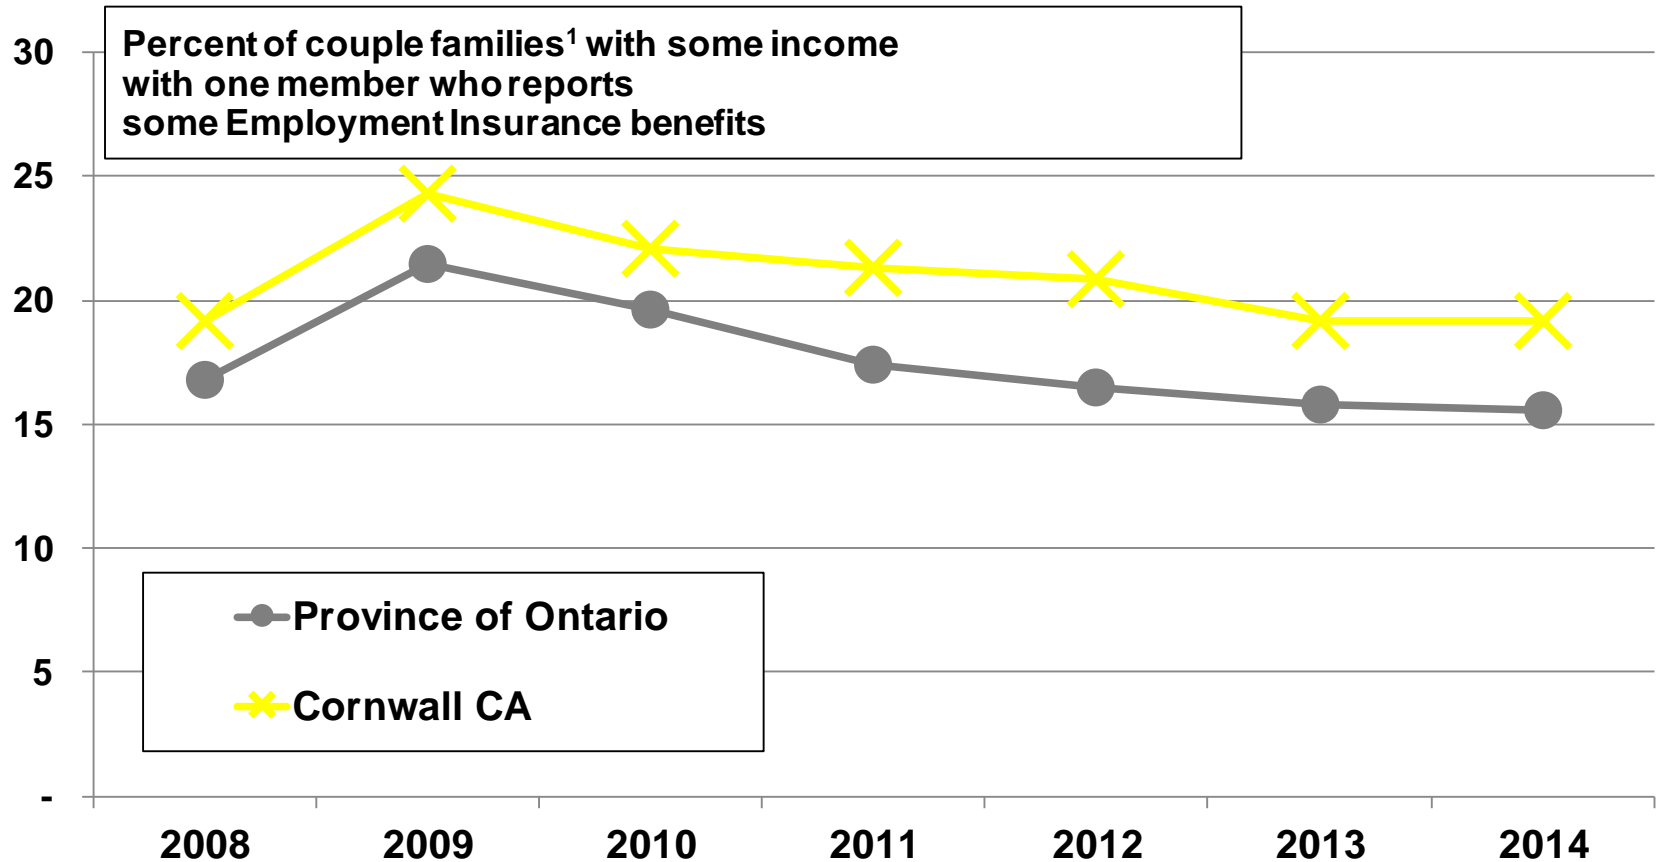

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Cornwall CA²

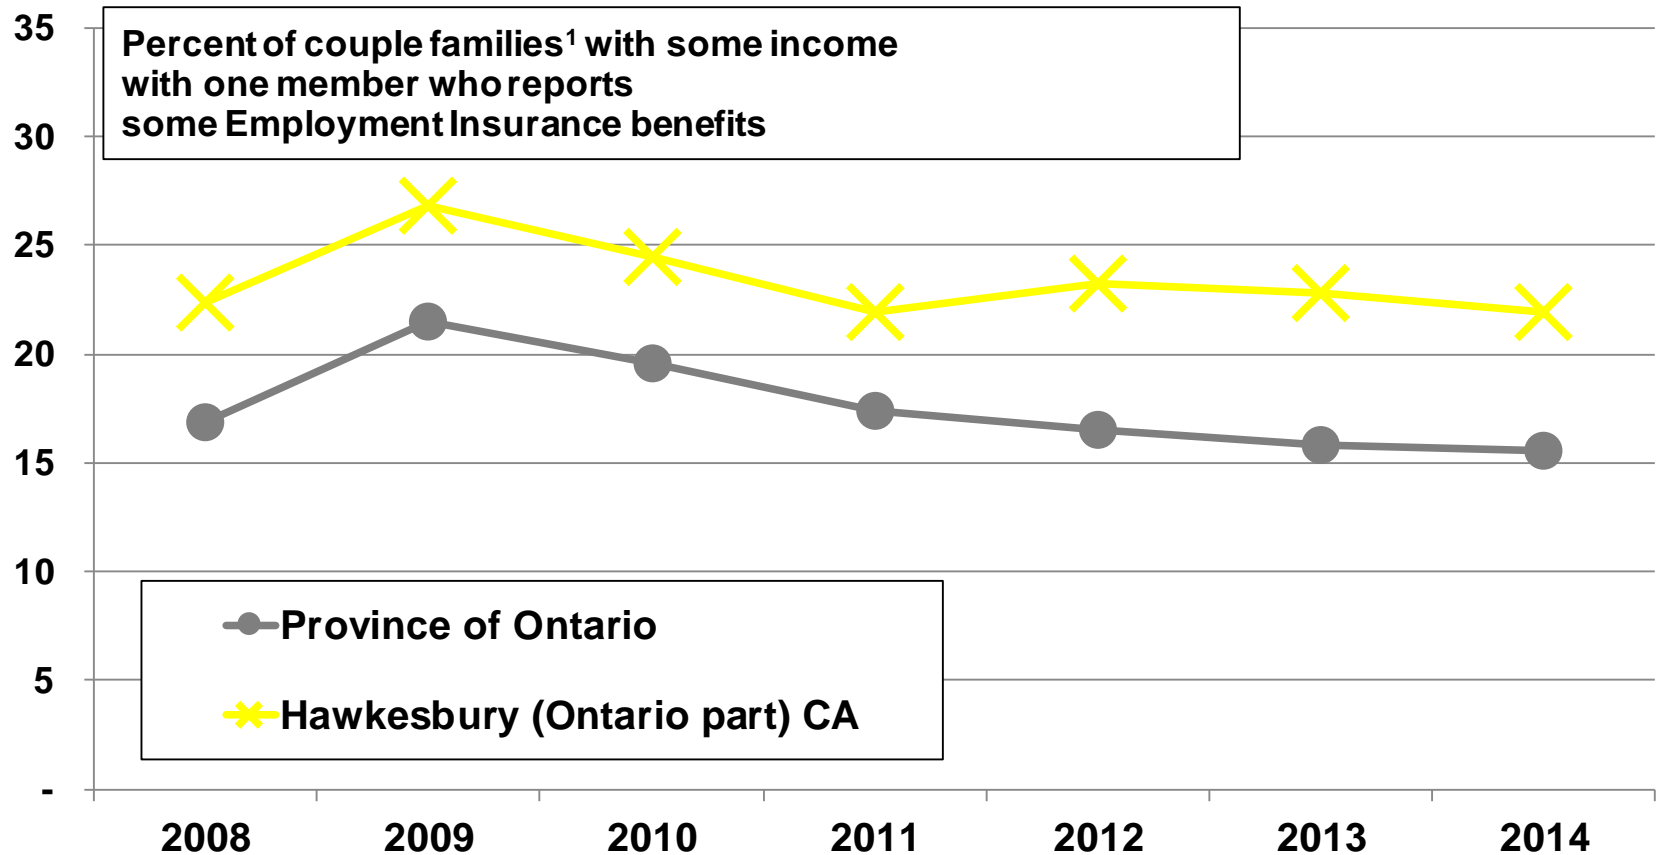

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children..

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Hawkesbury CA²

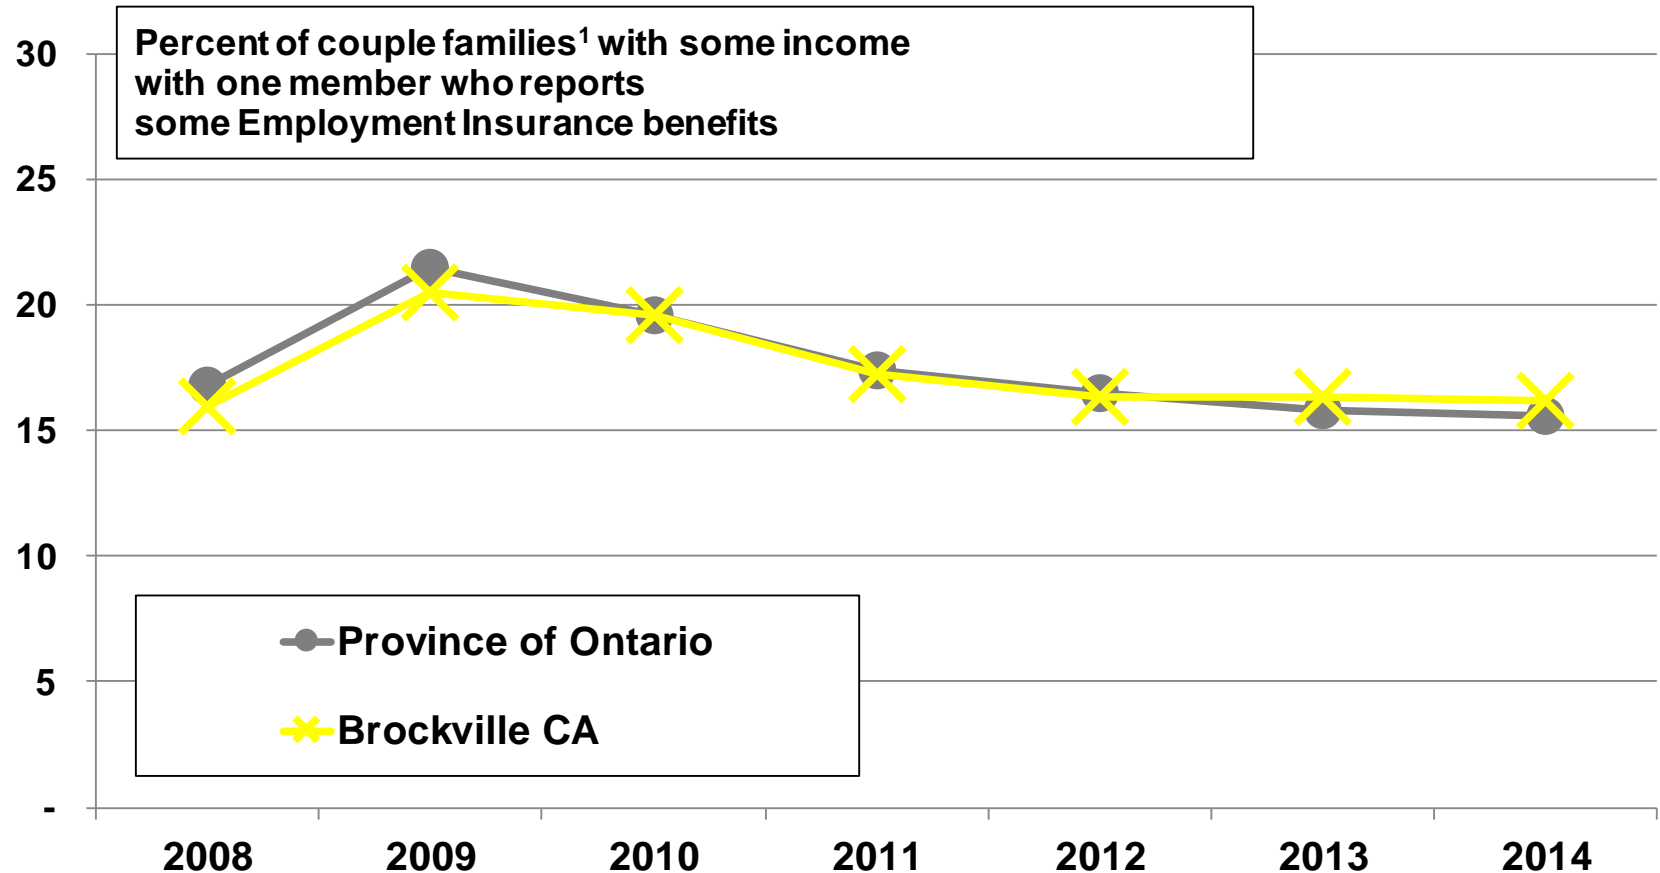

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children..

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Brockville CA²

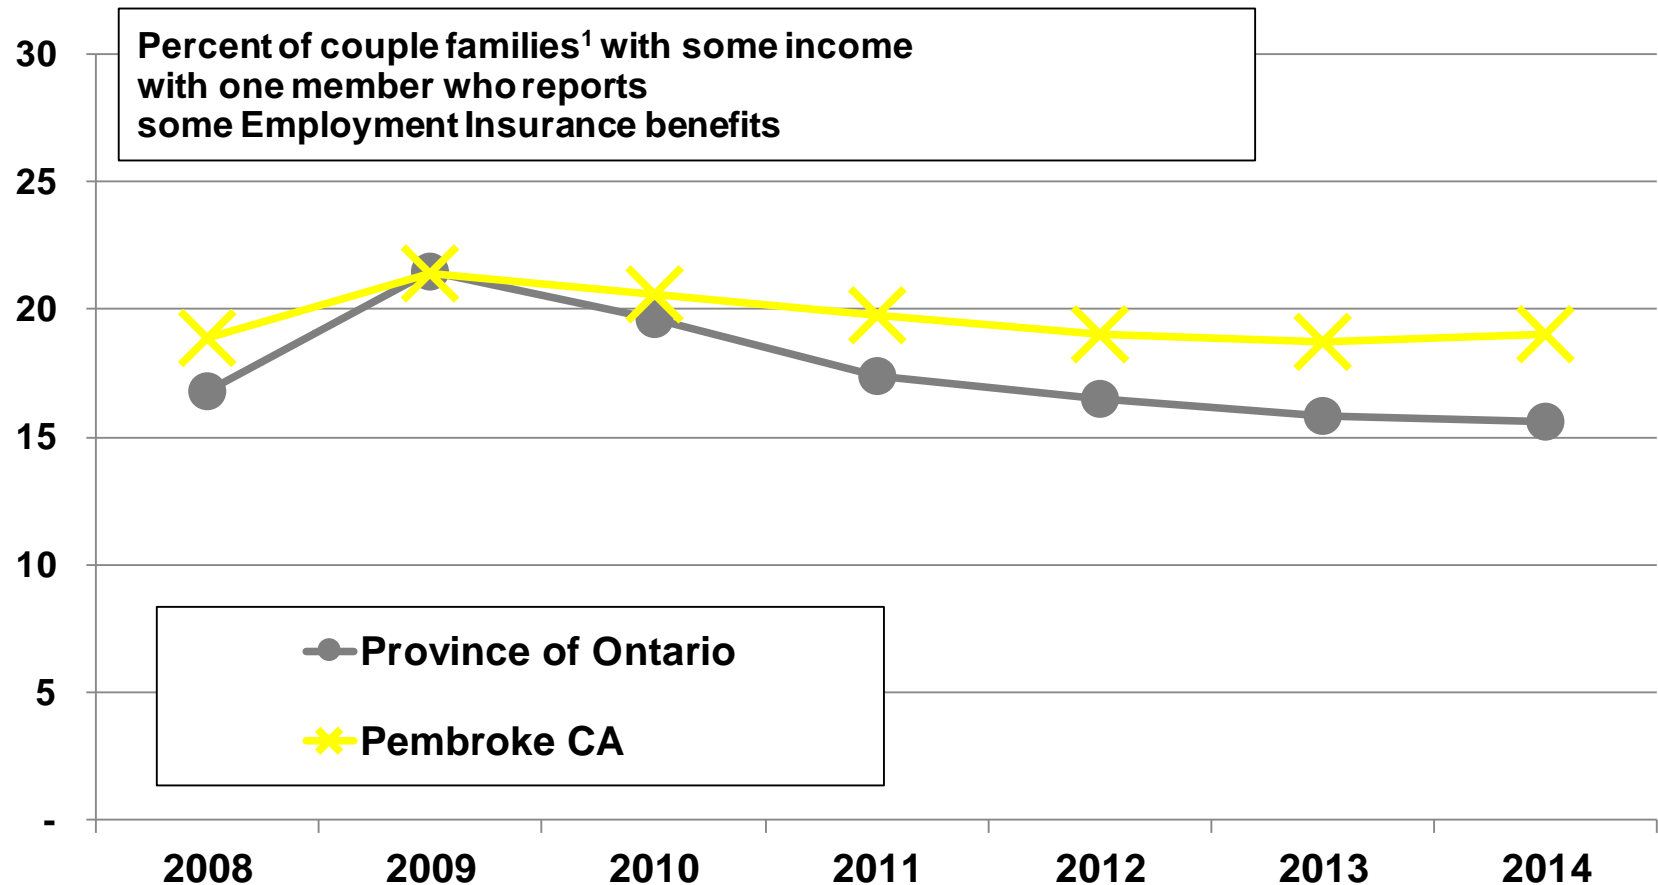

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children..

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Pembroke CA²

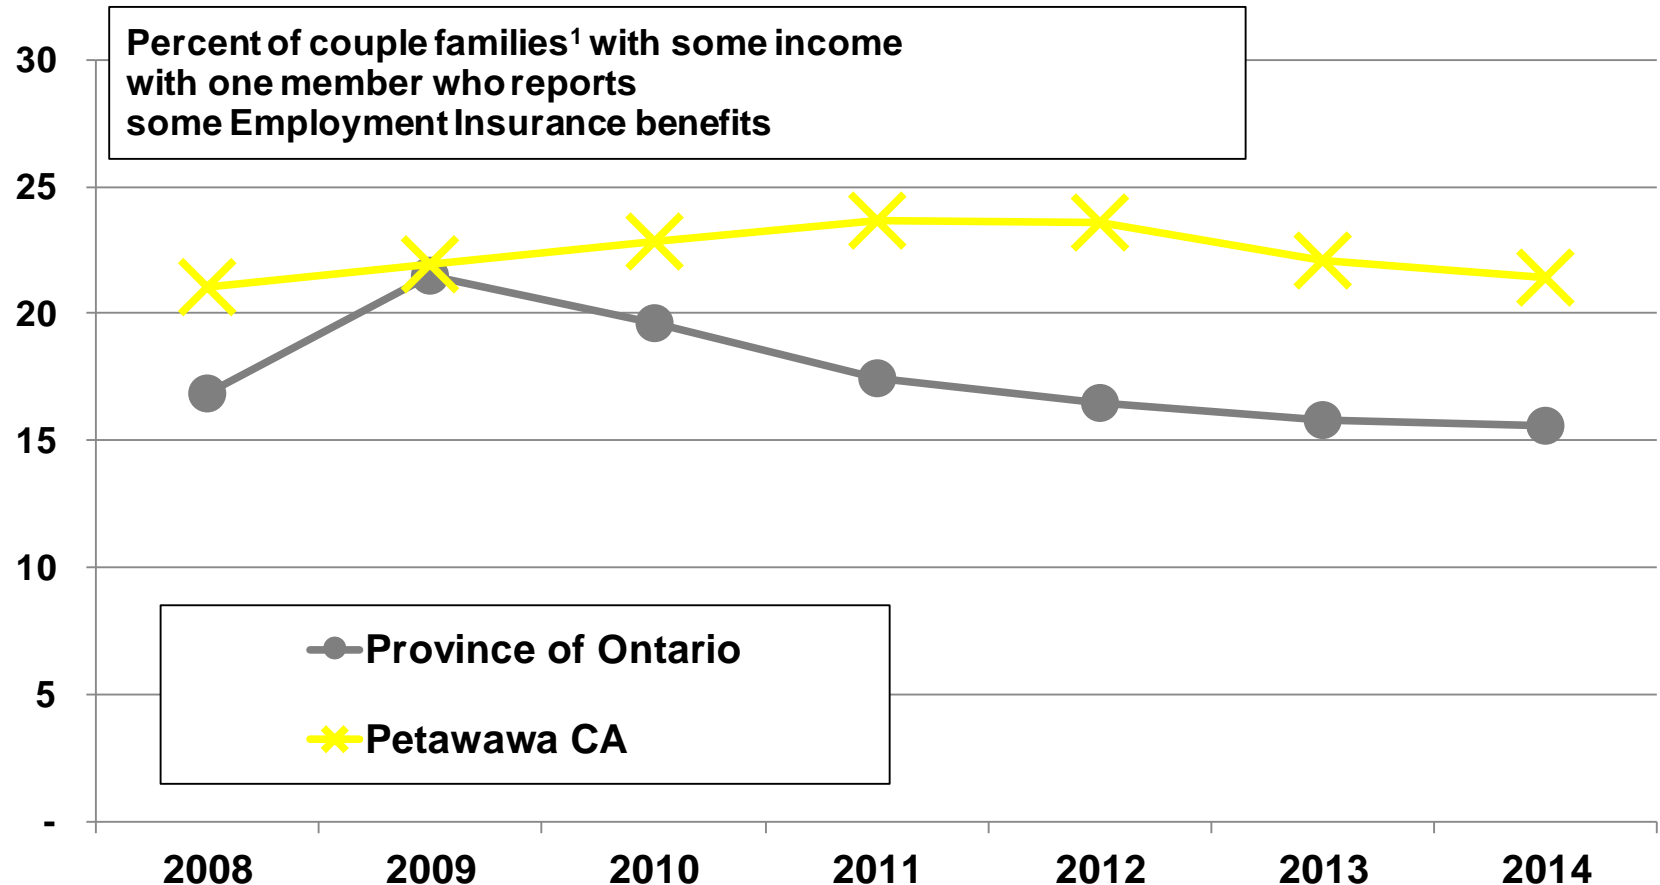

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children..

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Petawawa CA²

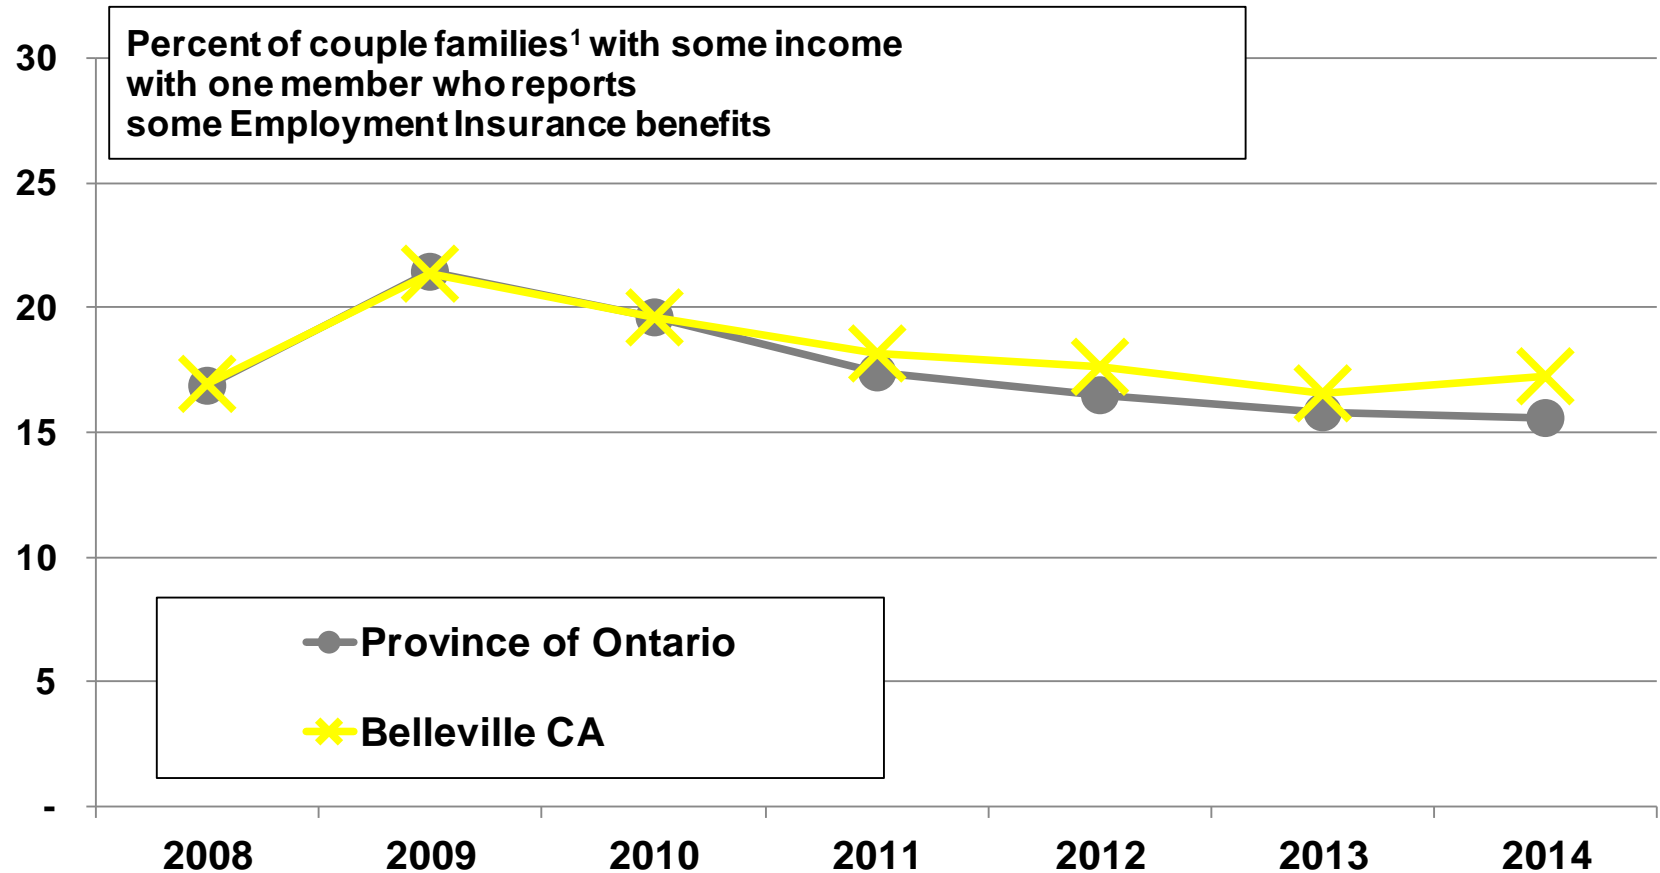

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children..

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Belleville CA²

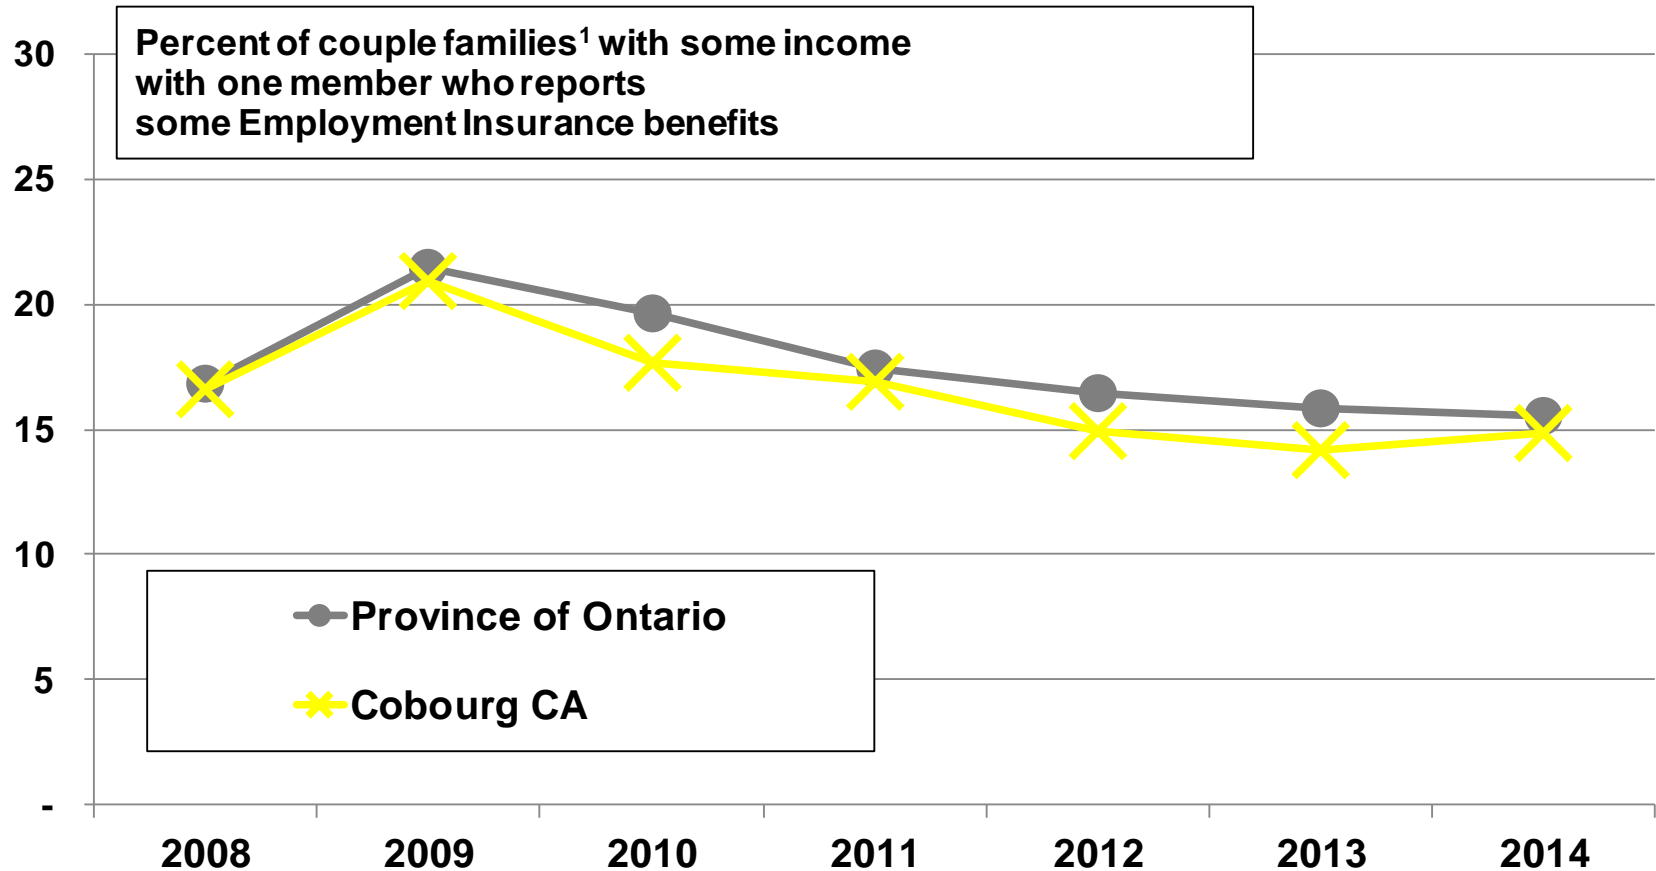

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Cobourg CA²

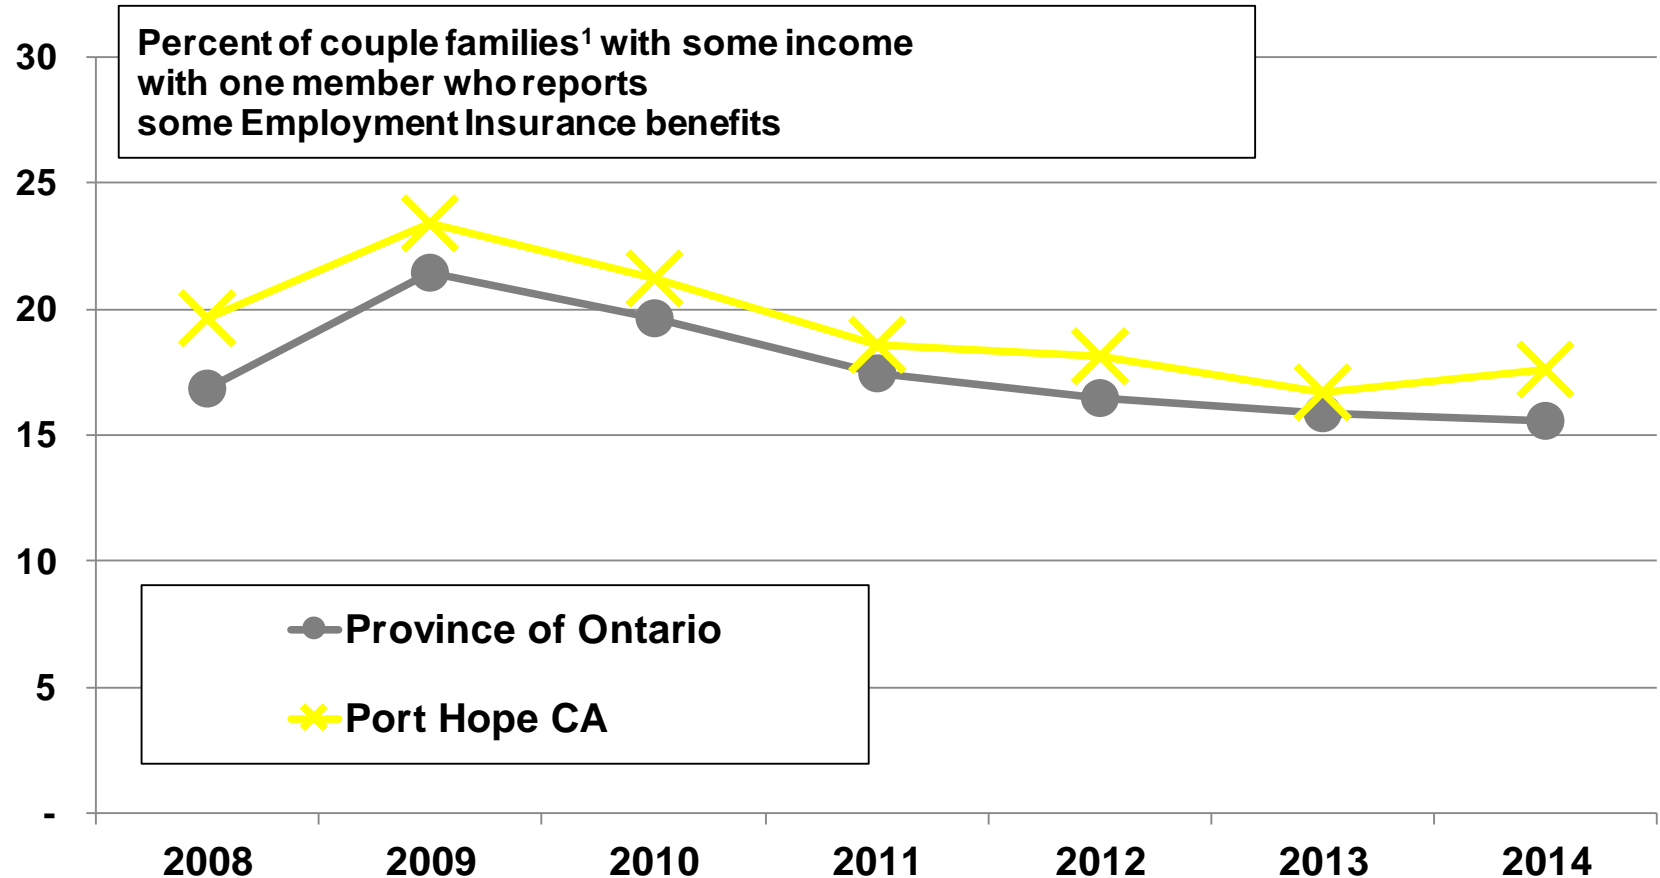

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Port Hope CA²

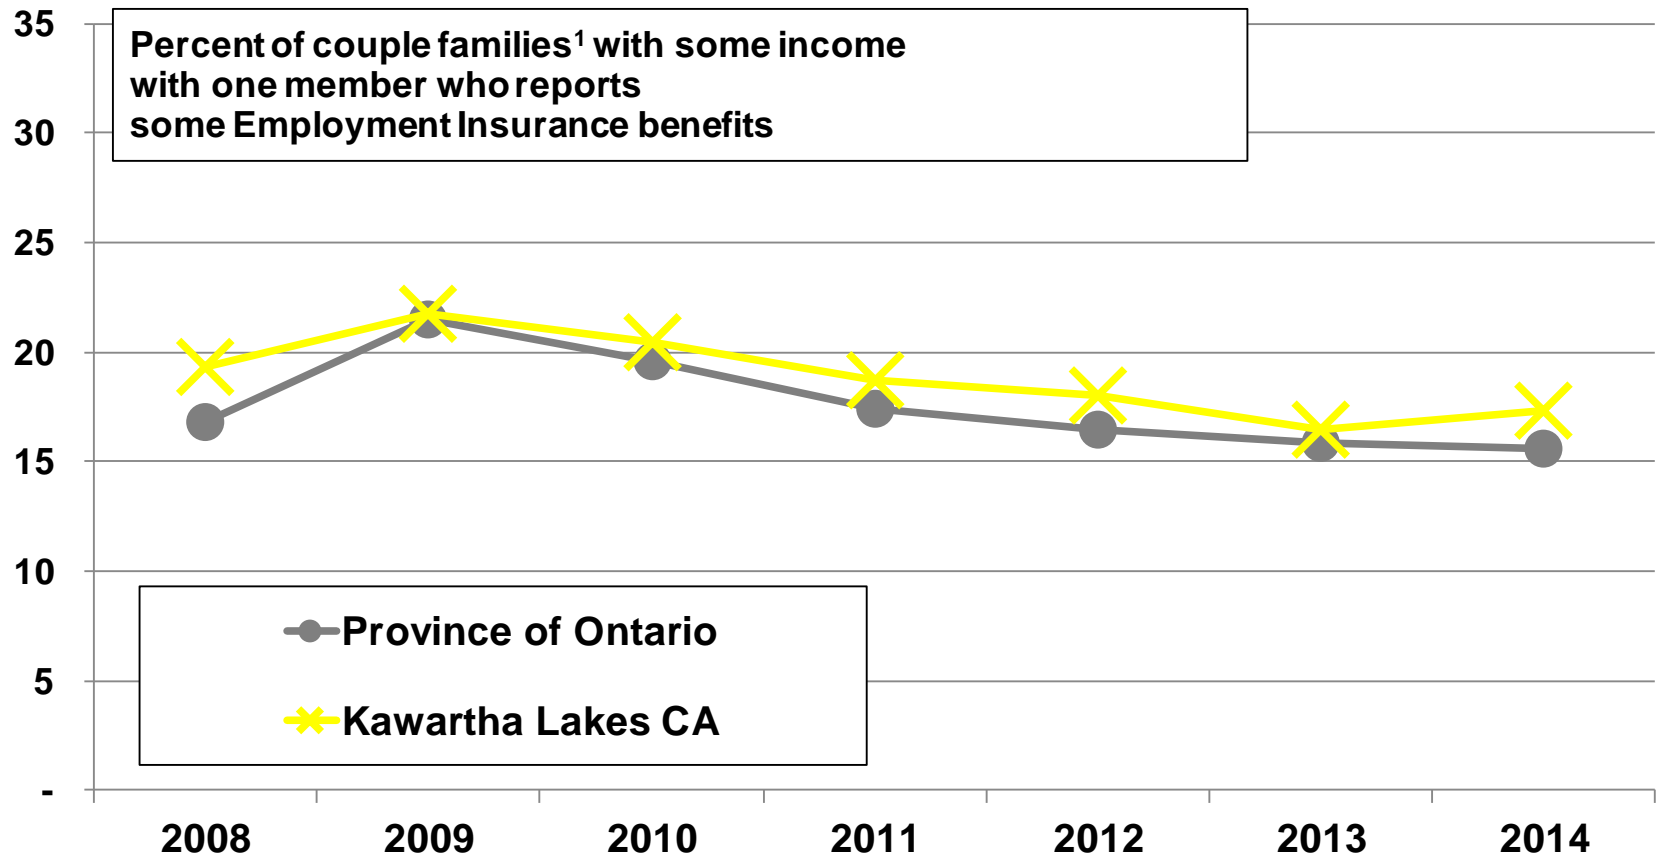

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Kawartha Lakes CA²

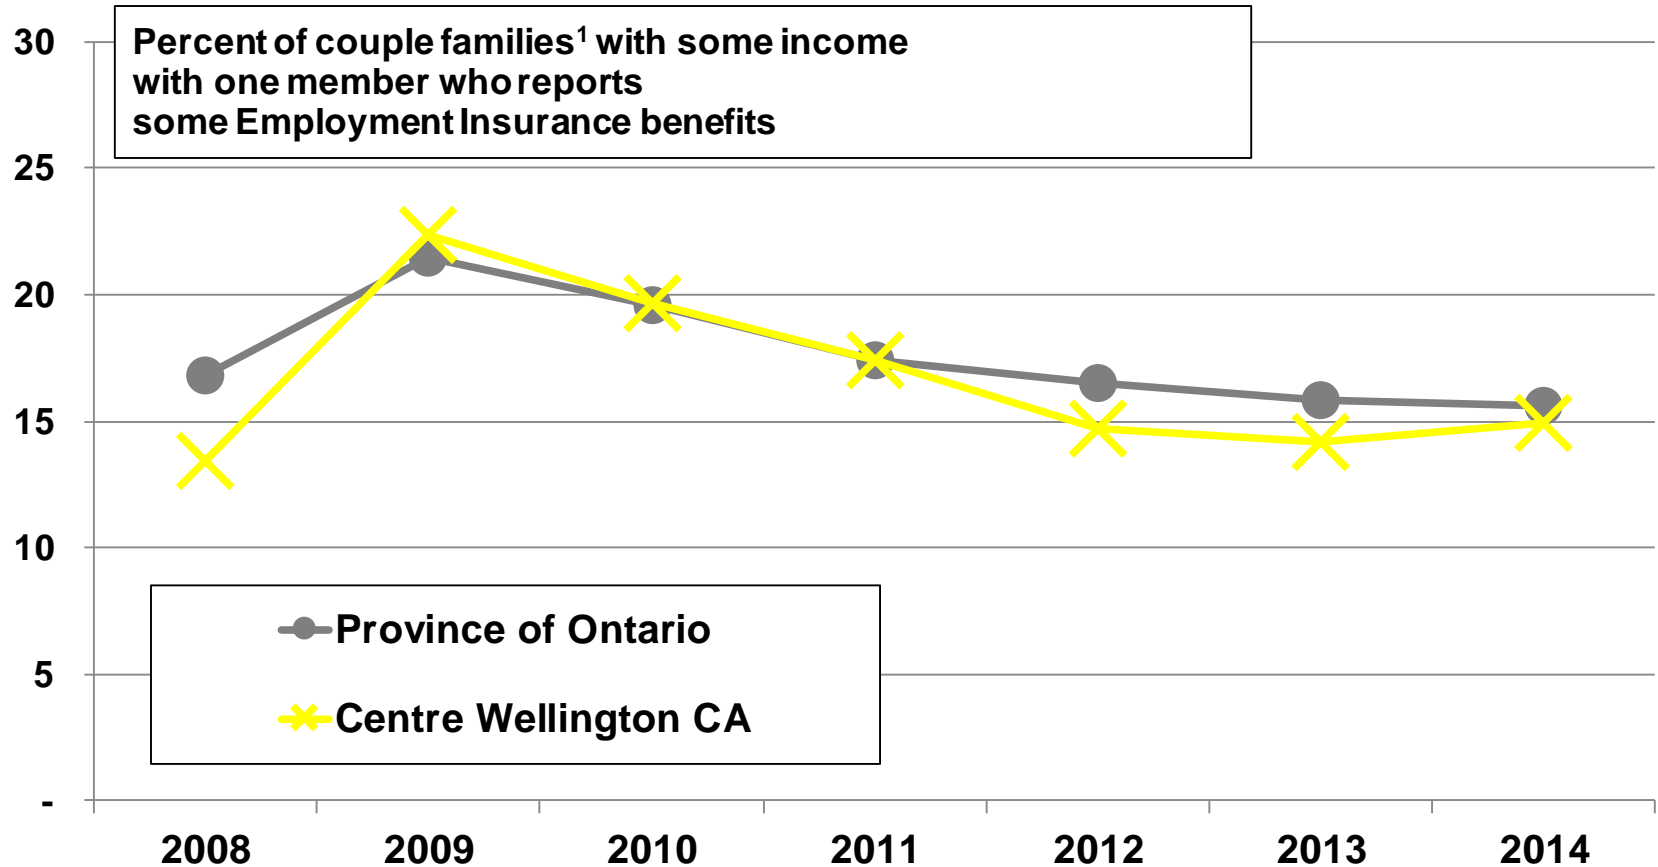

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Centre Wellington CA²

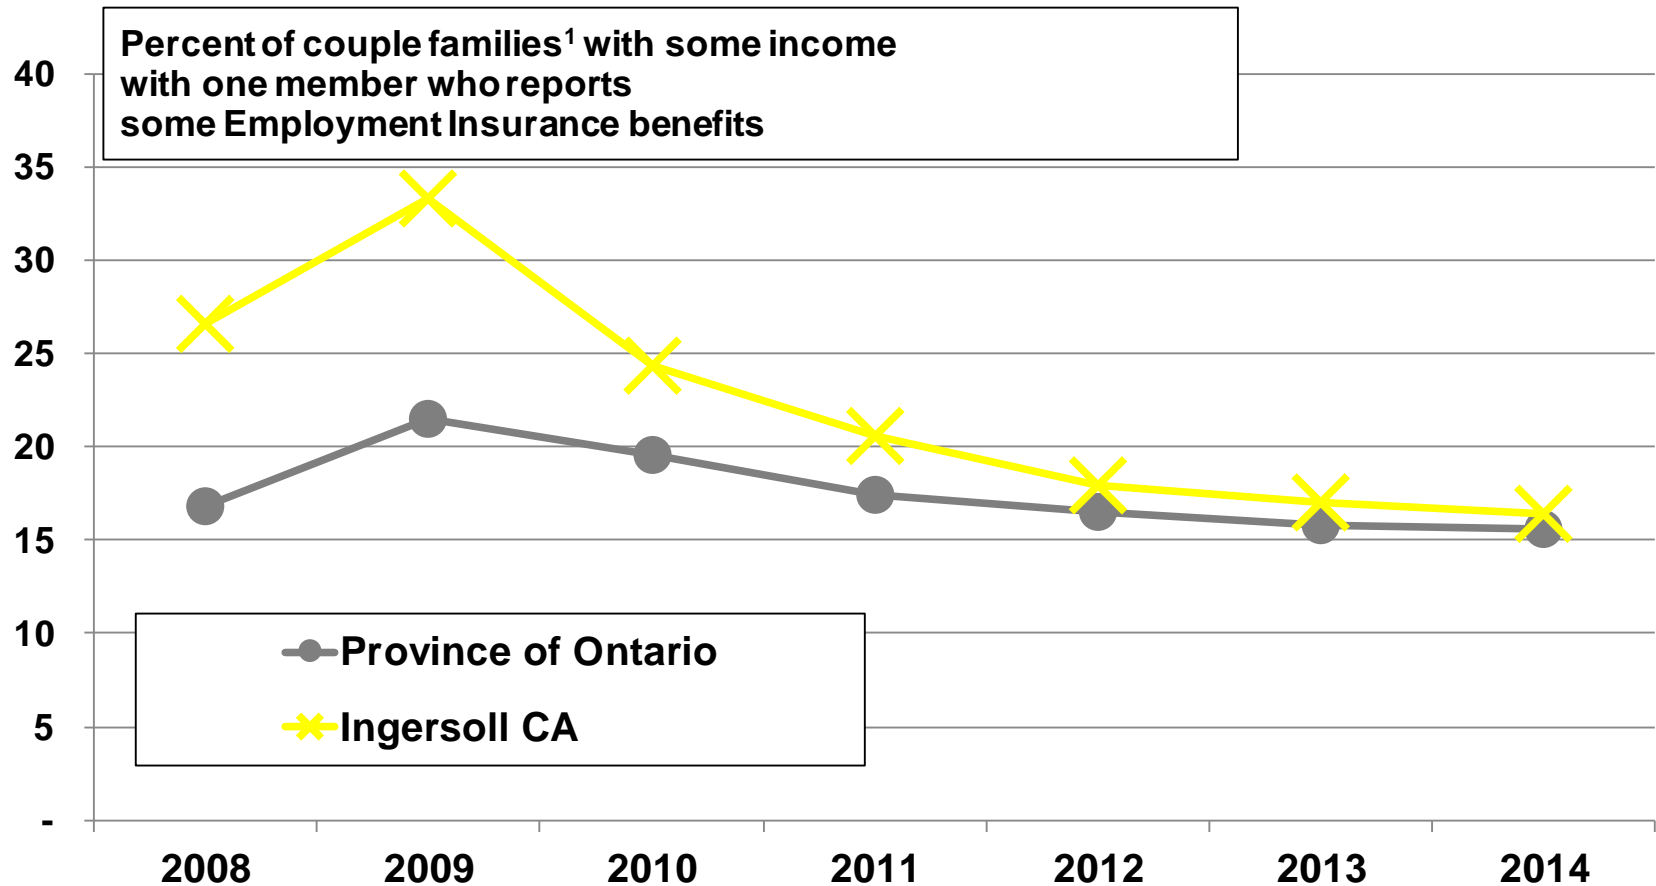

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Ingersoll CA²

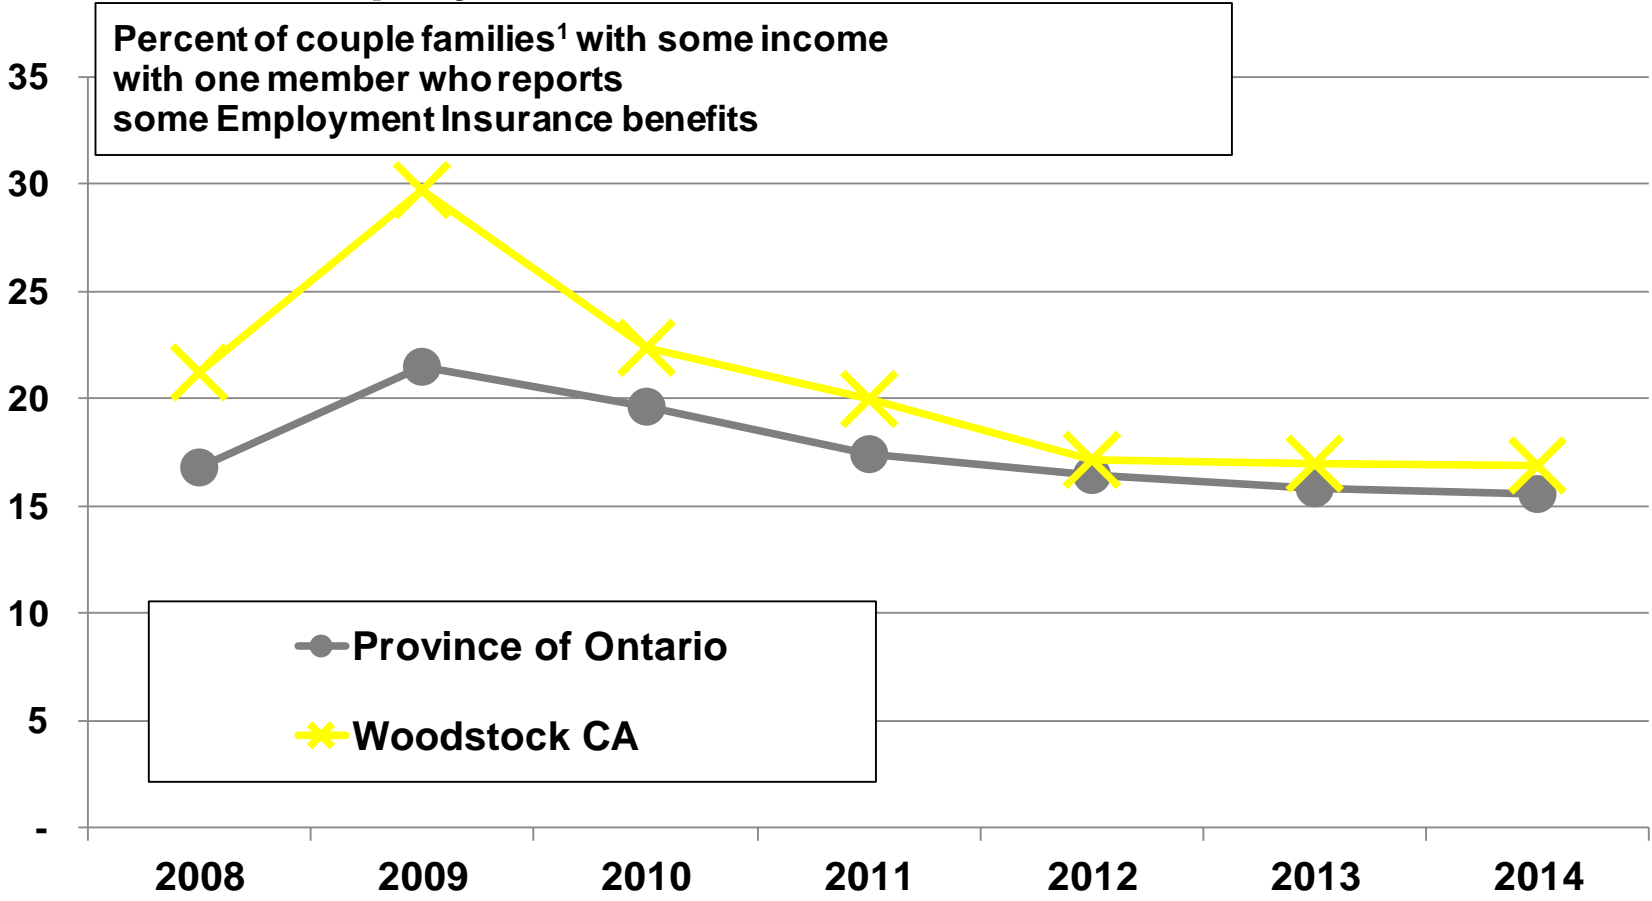

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Woodstock CA²

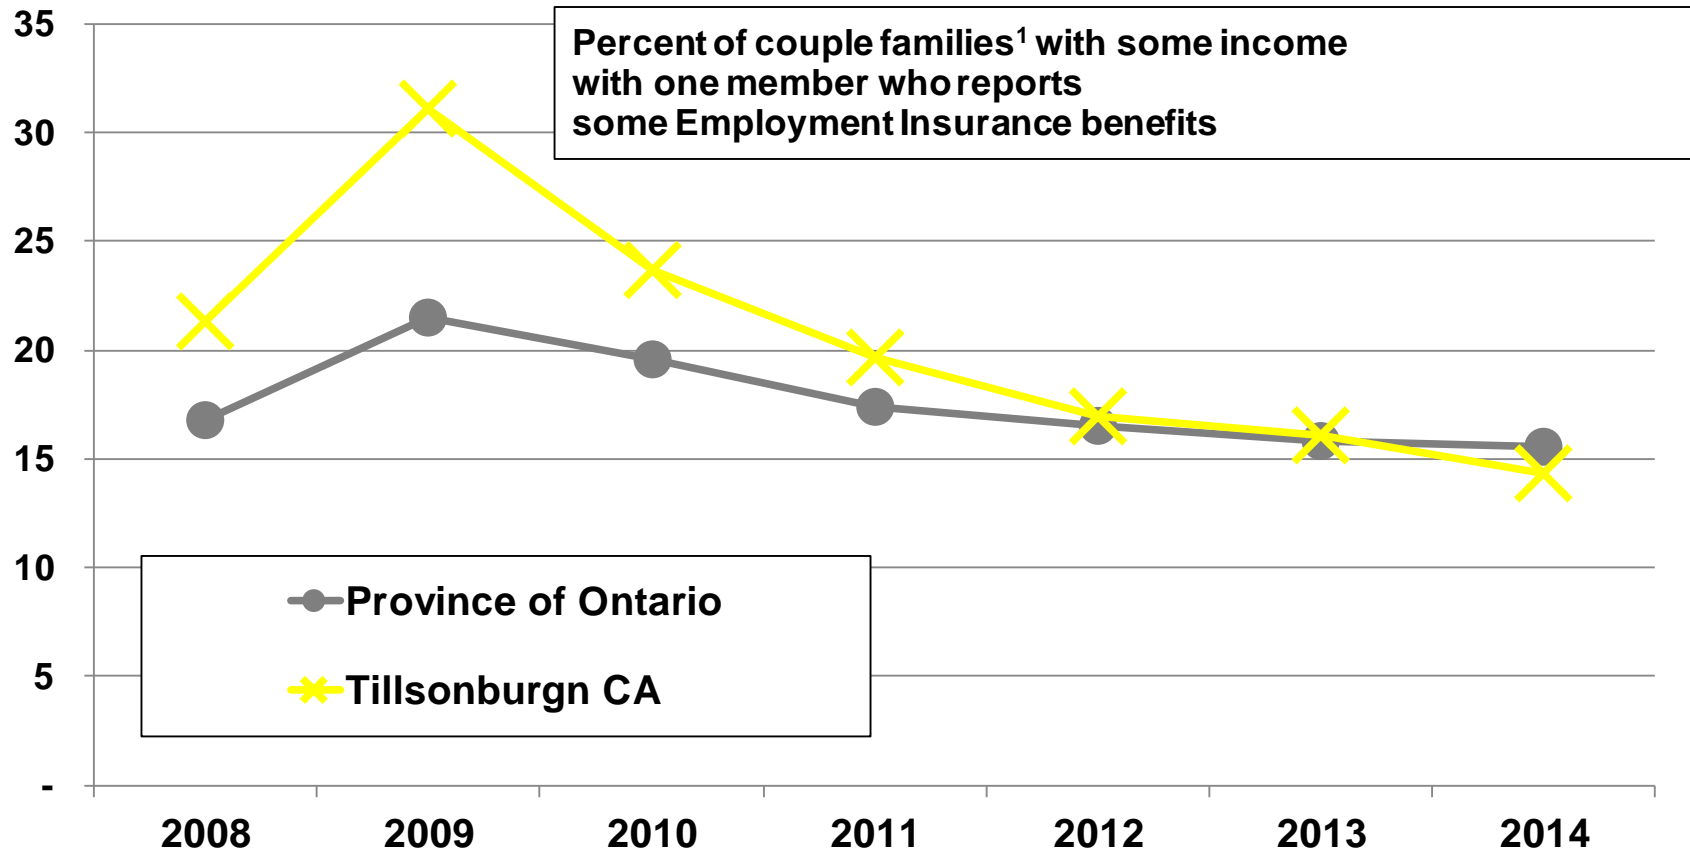

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Tillsonburg CA²

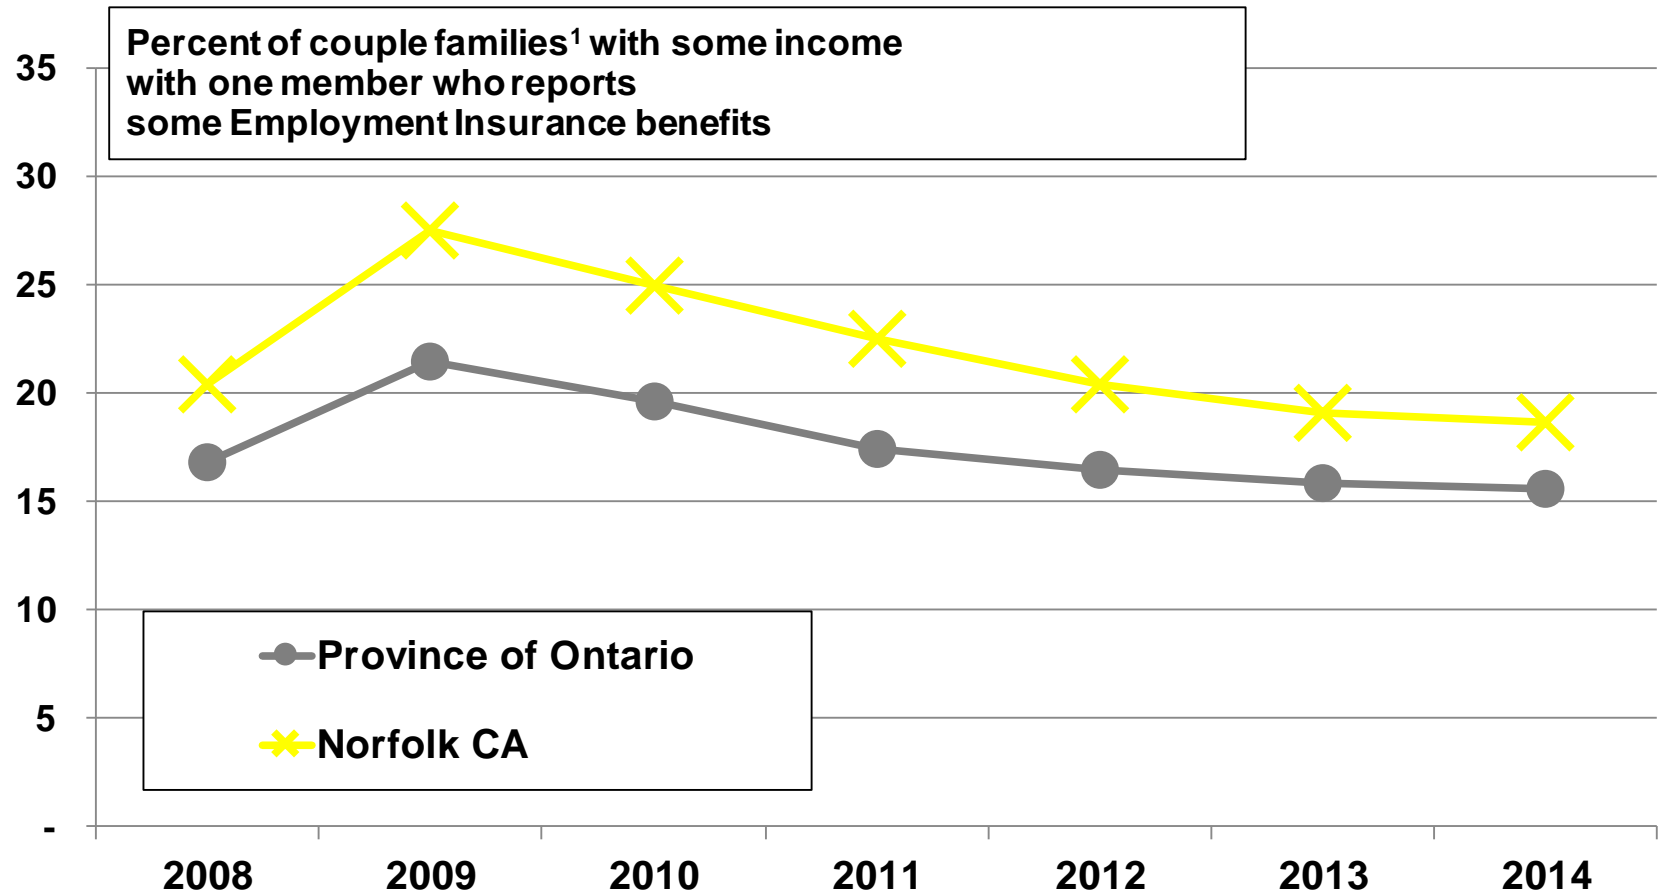

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Norfolk CA²

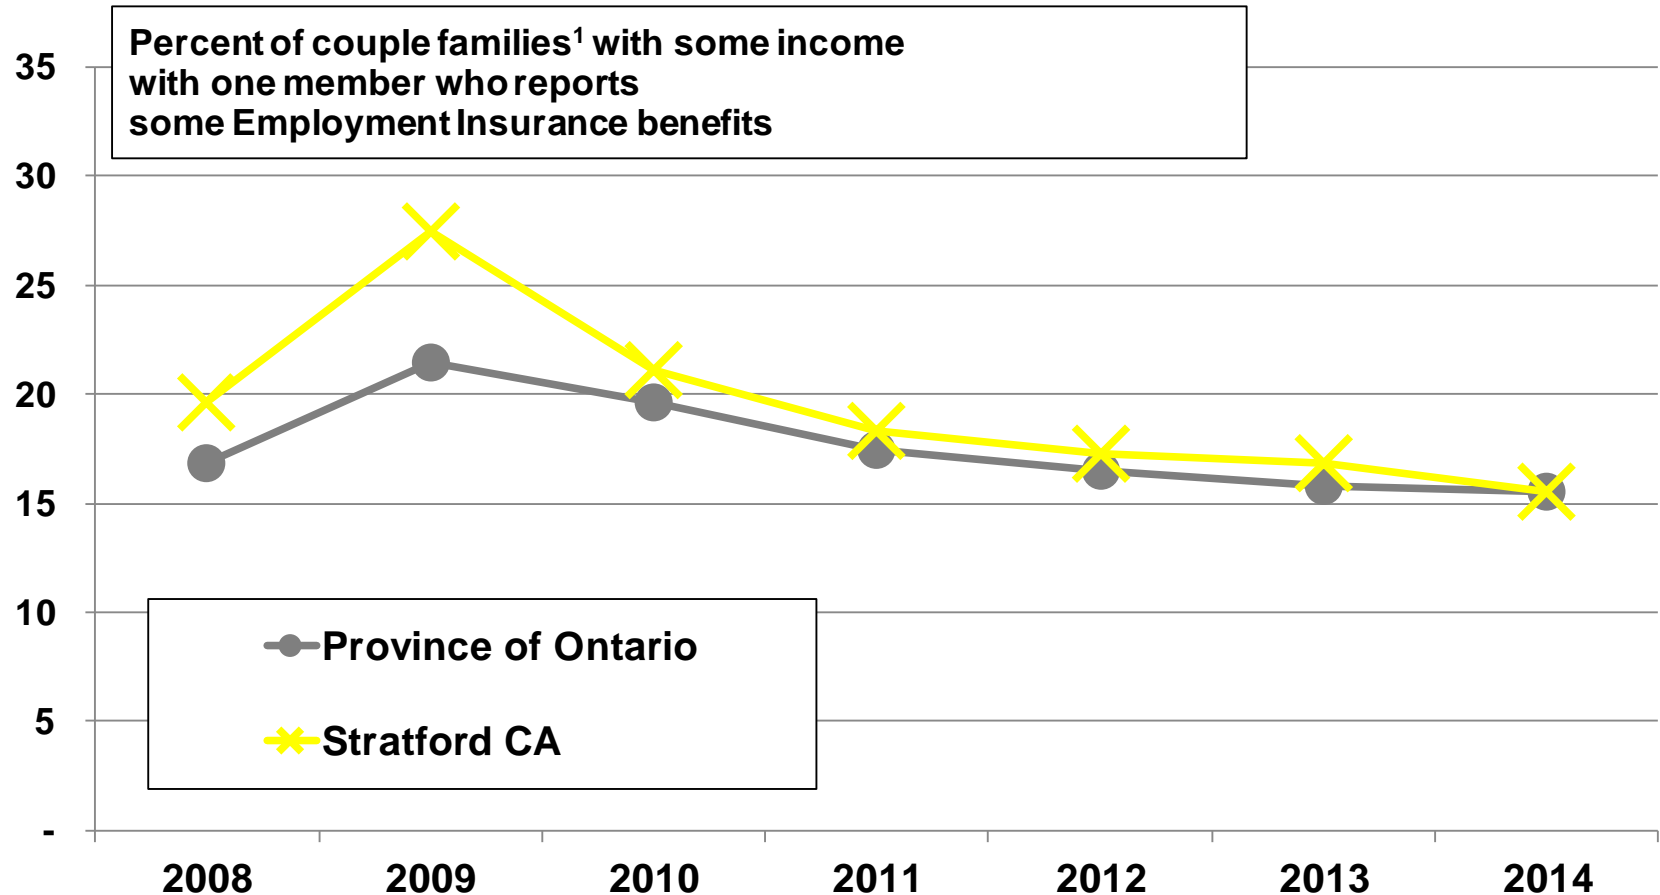

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Stratford CA²

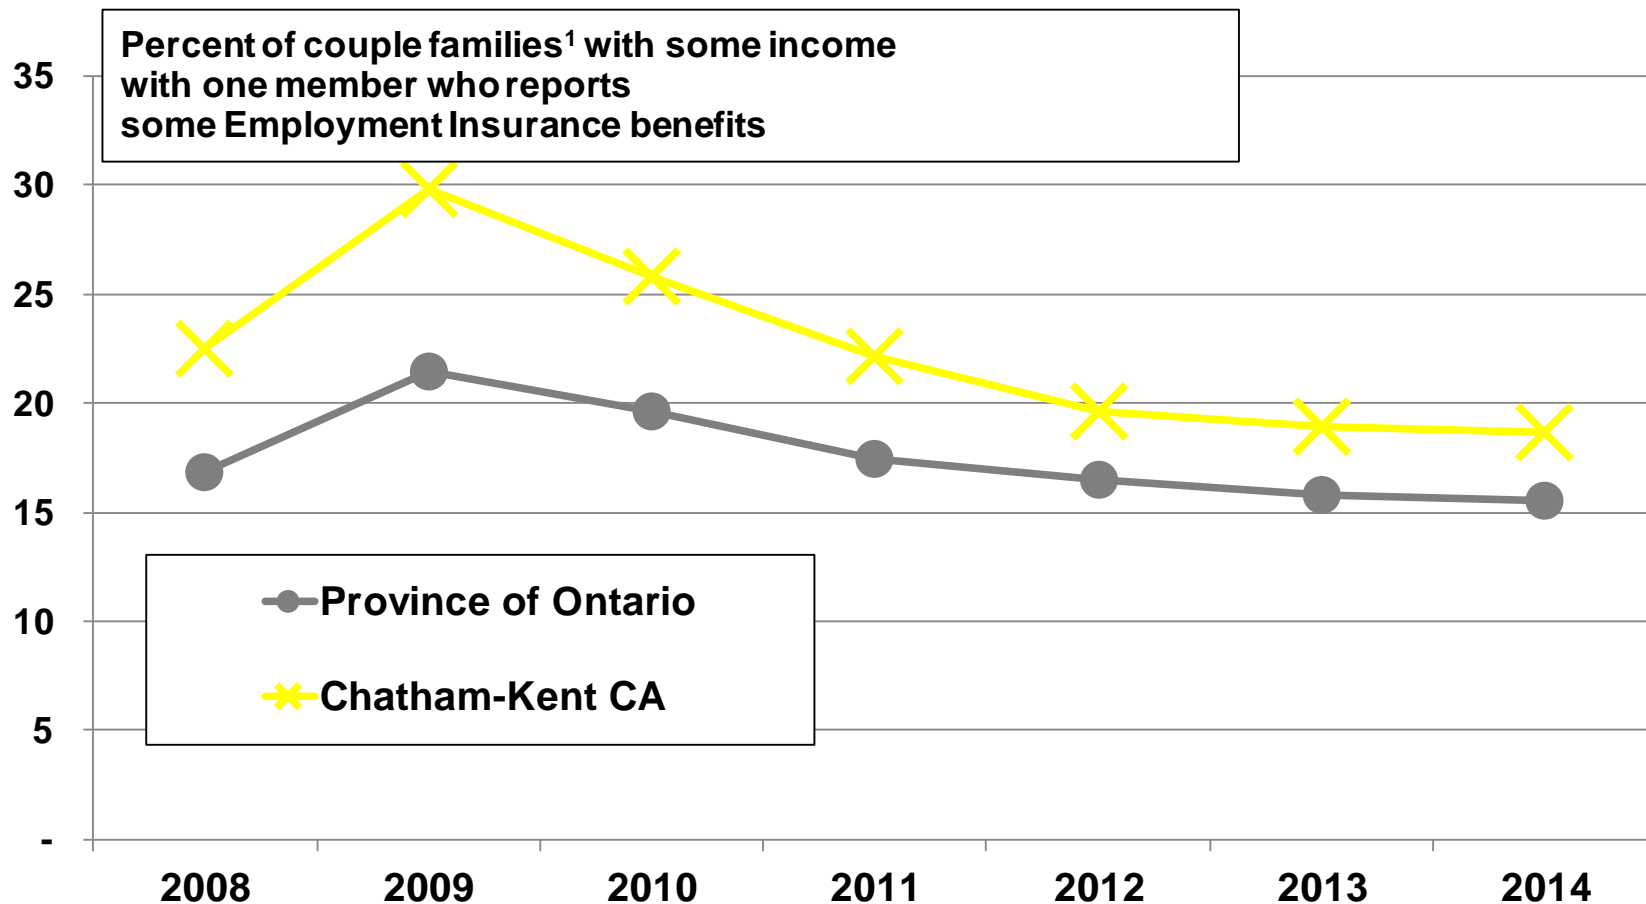

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Chatham-Kent CA²

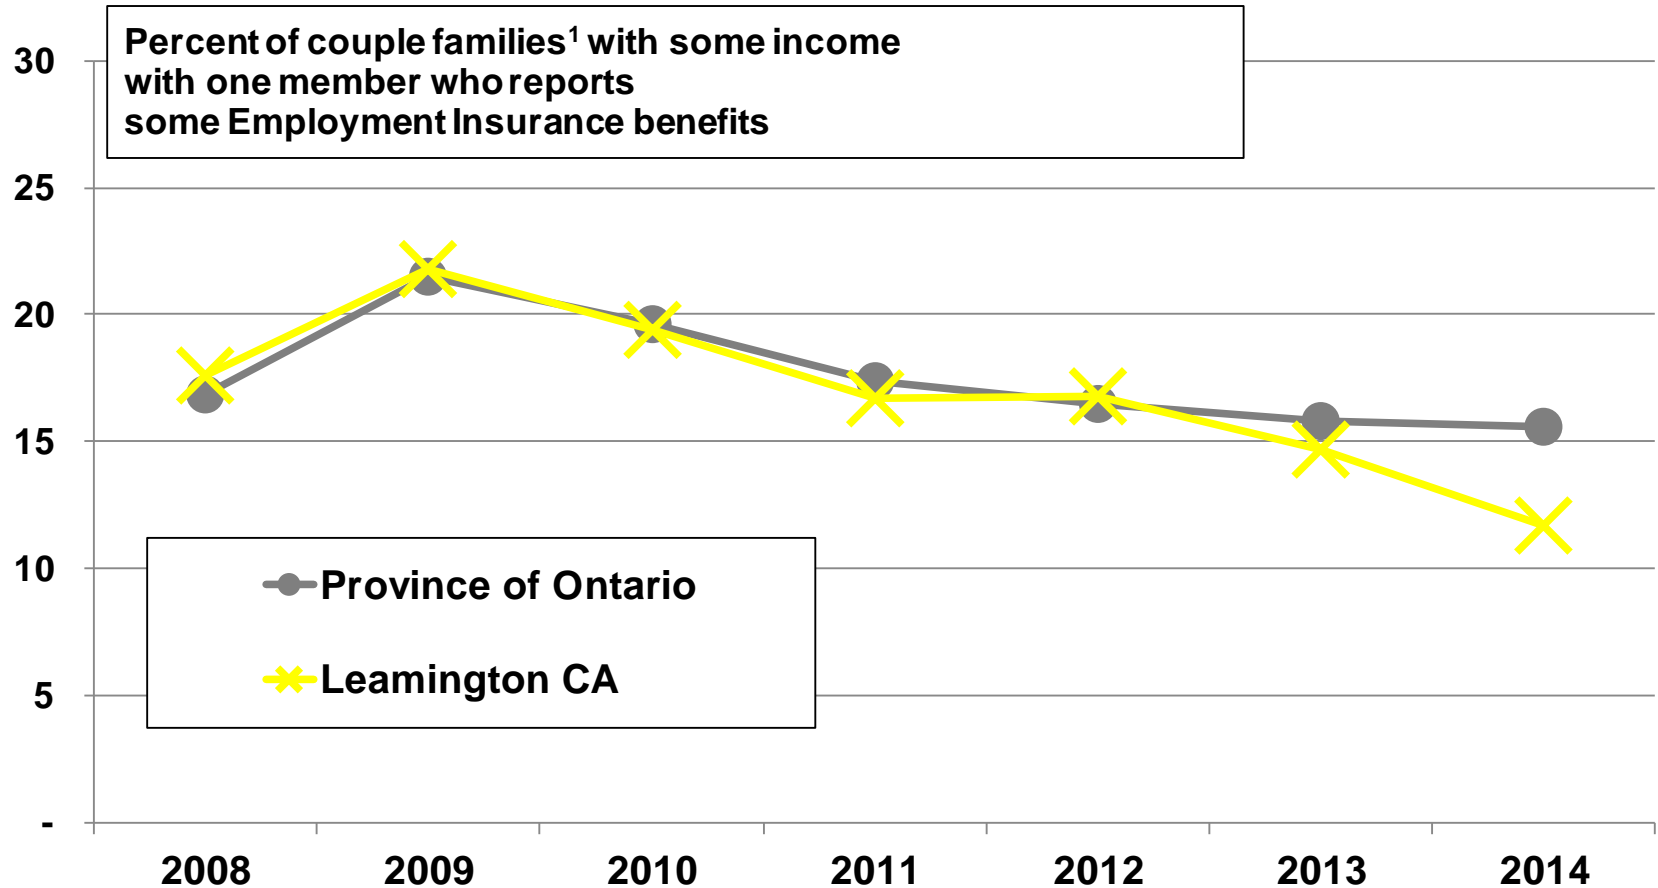

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Leamington CA²

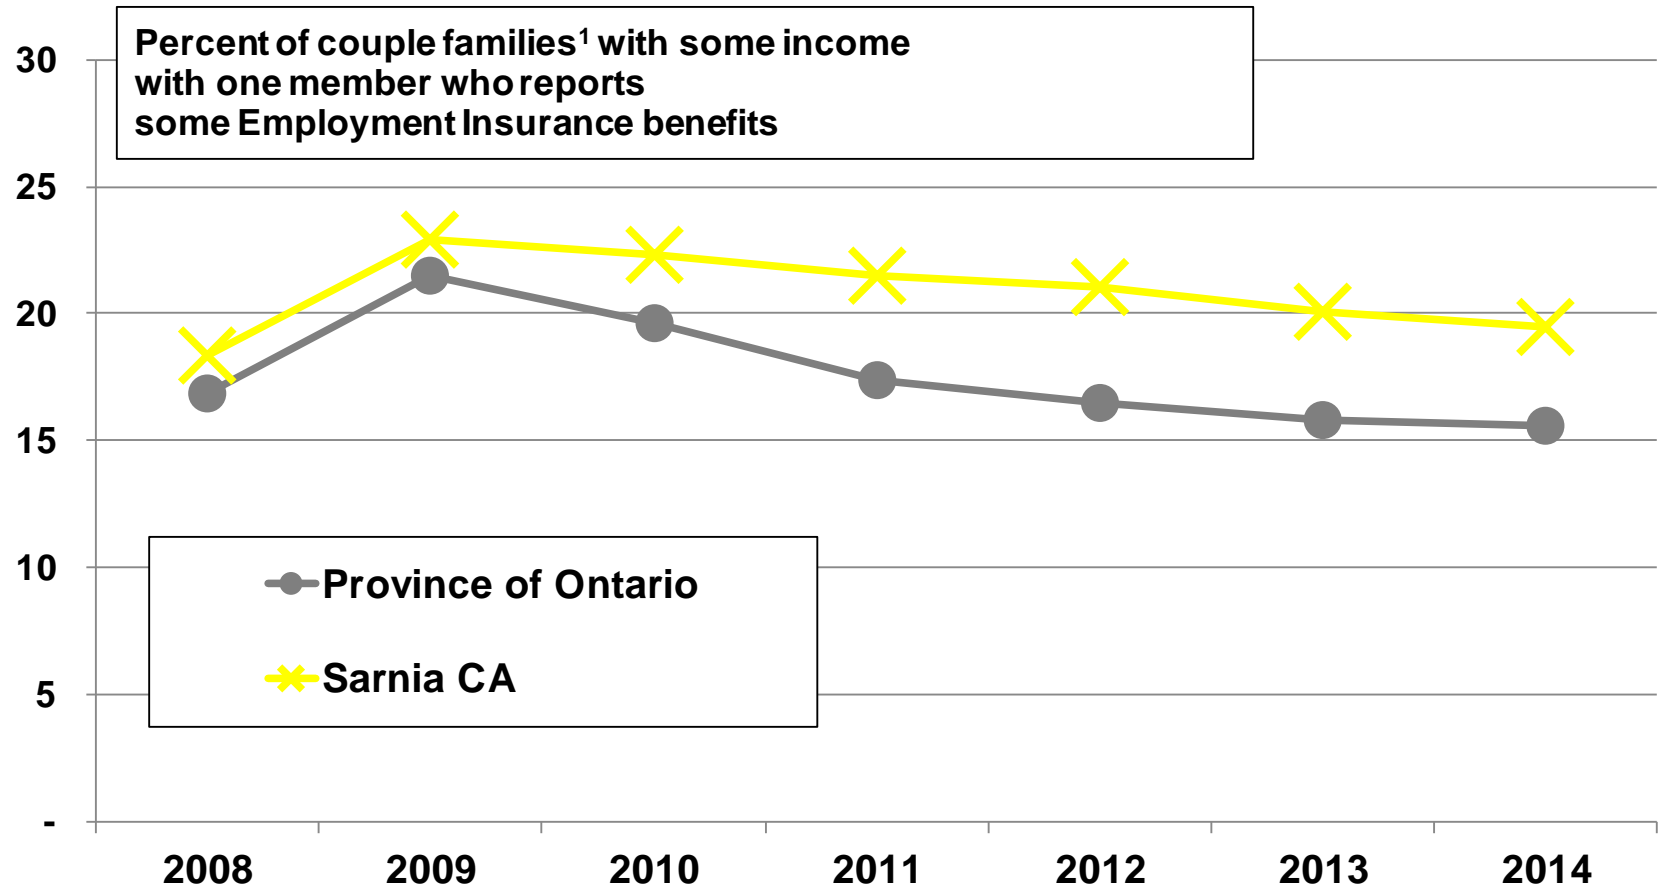

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Sarnia CA²

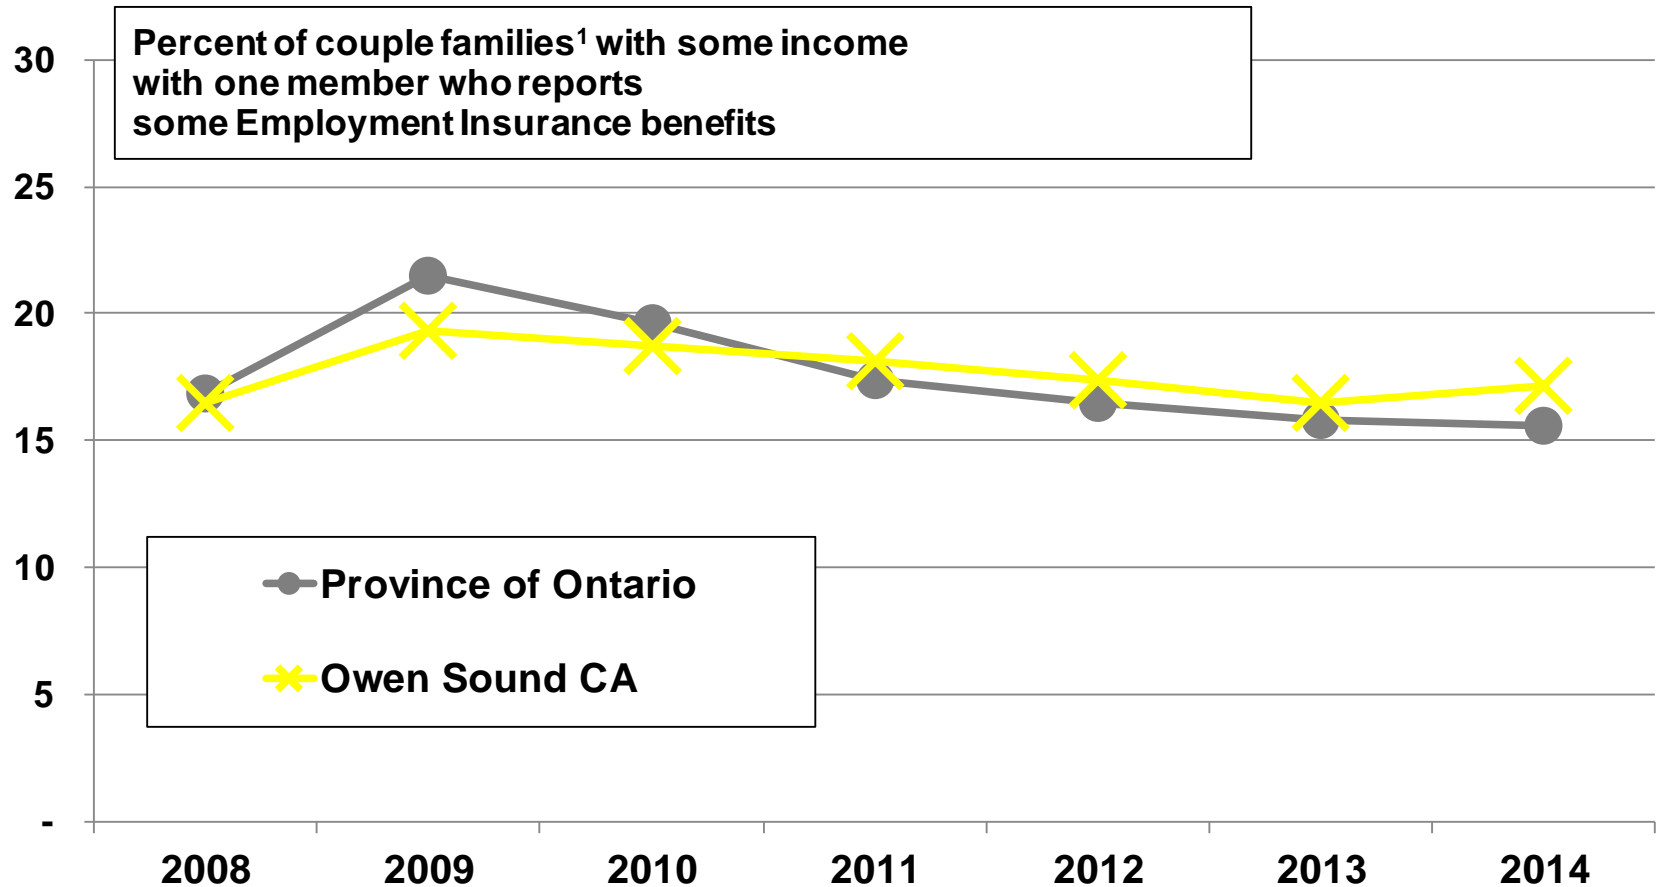

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Owen Sound CA²

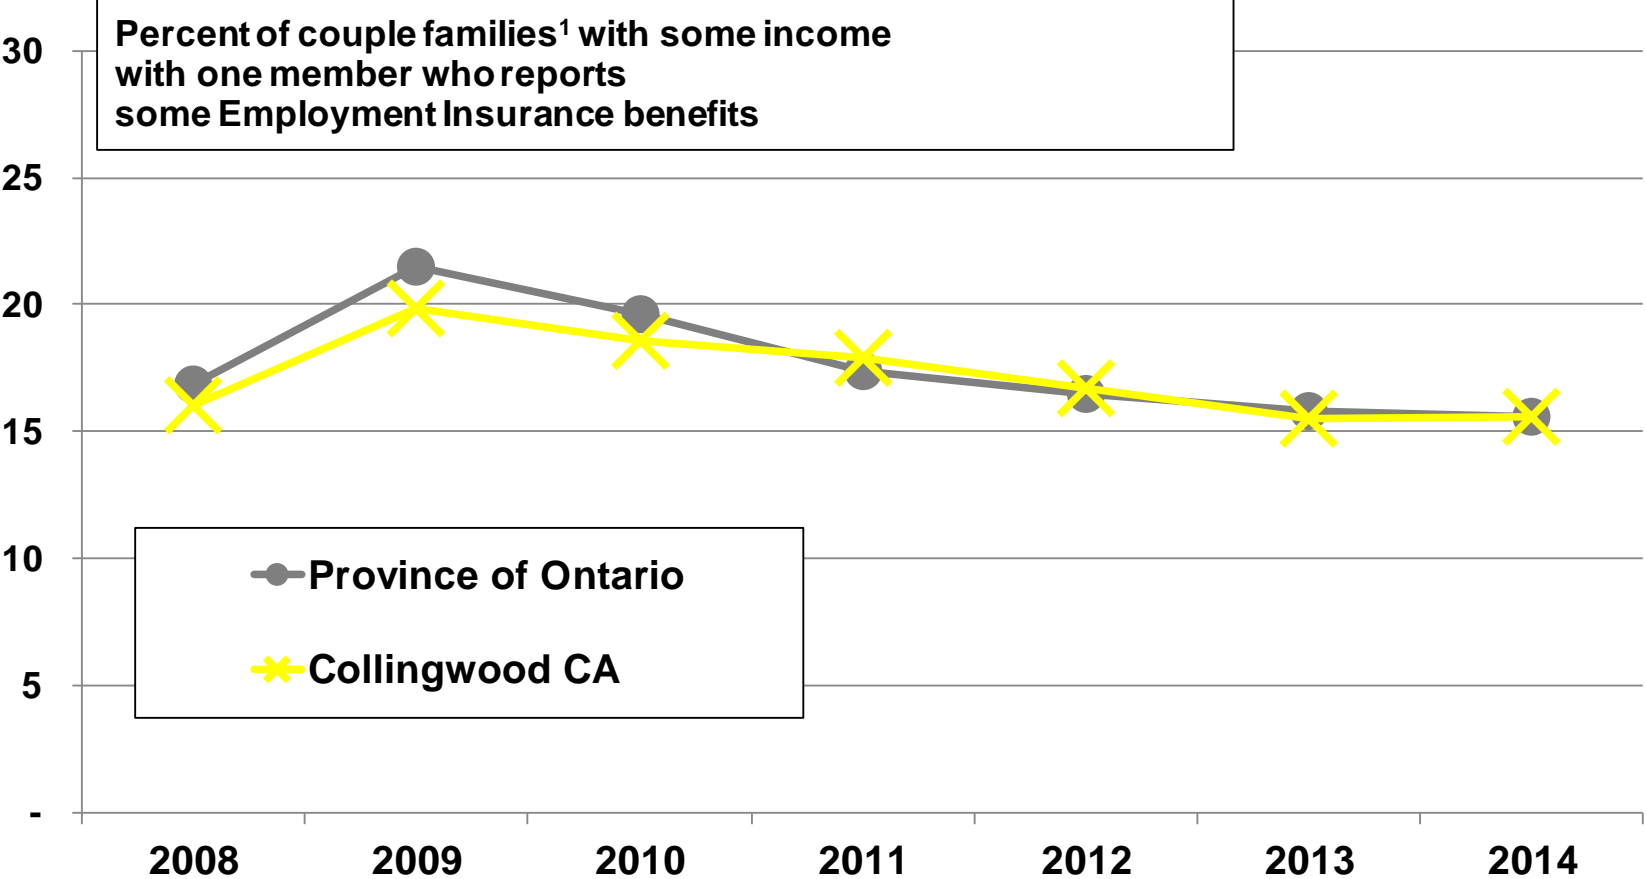

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

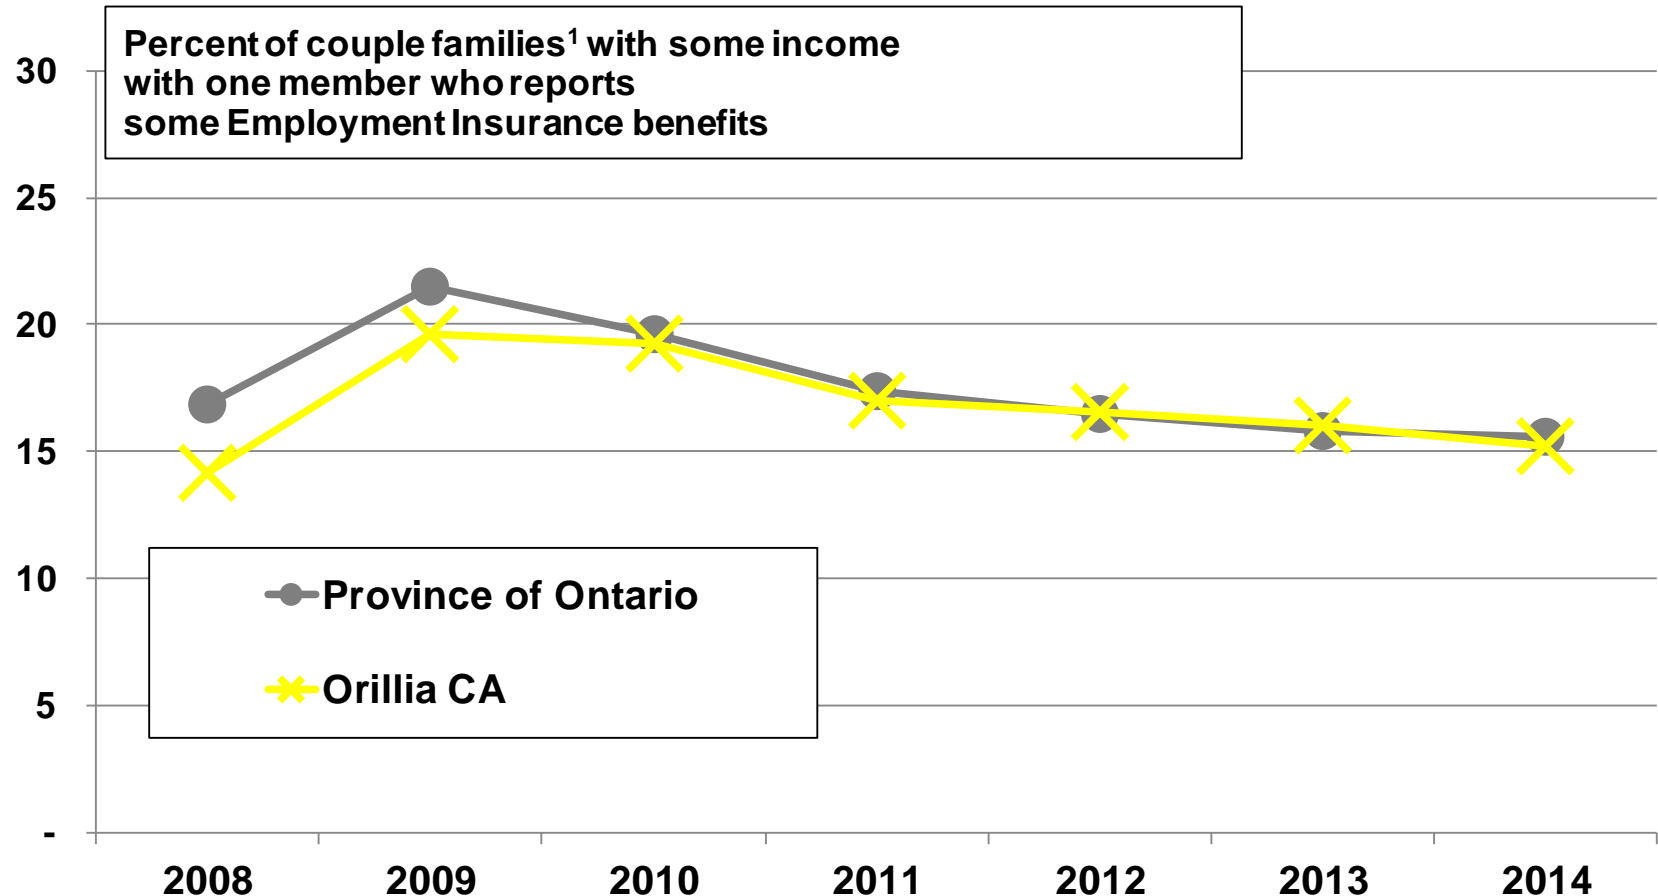

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Collingwood CA²

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.
 2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.
 Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Orillia CA²

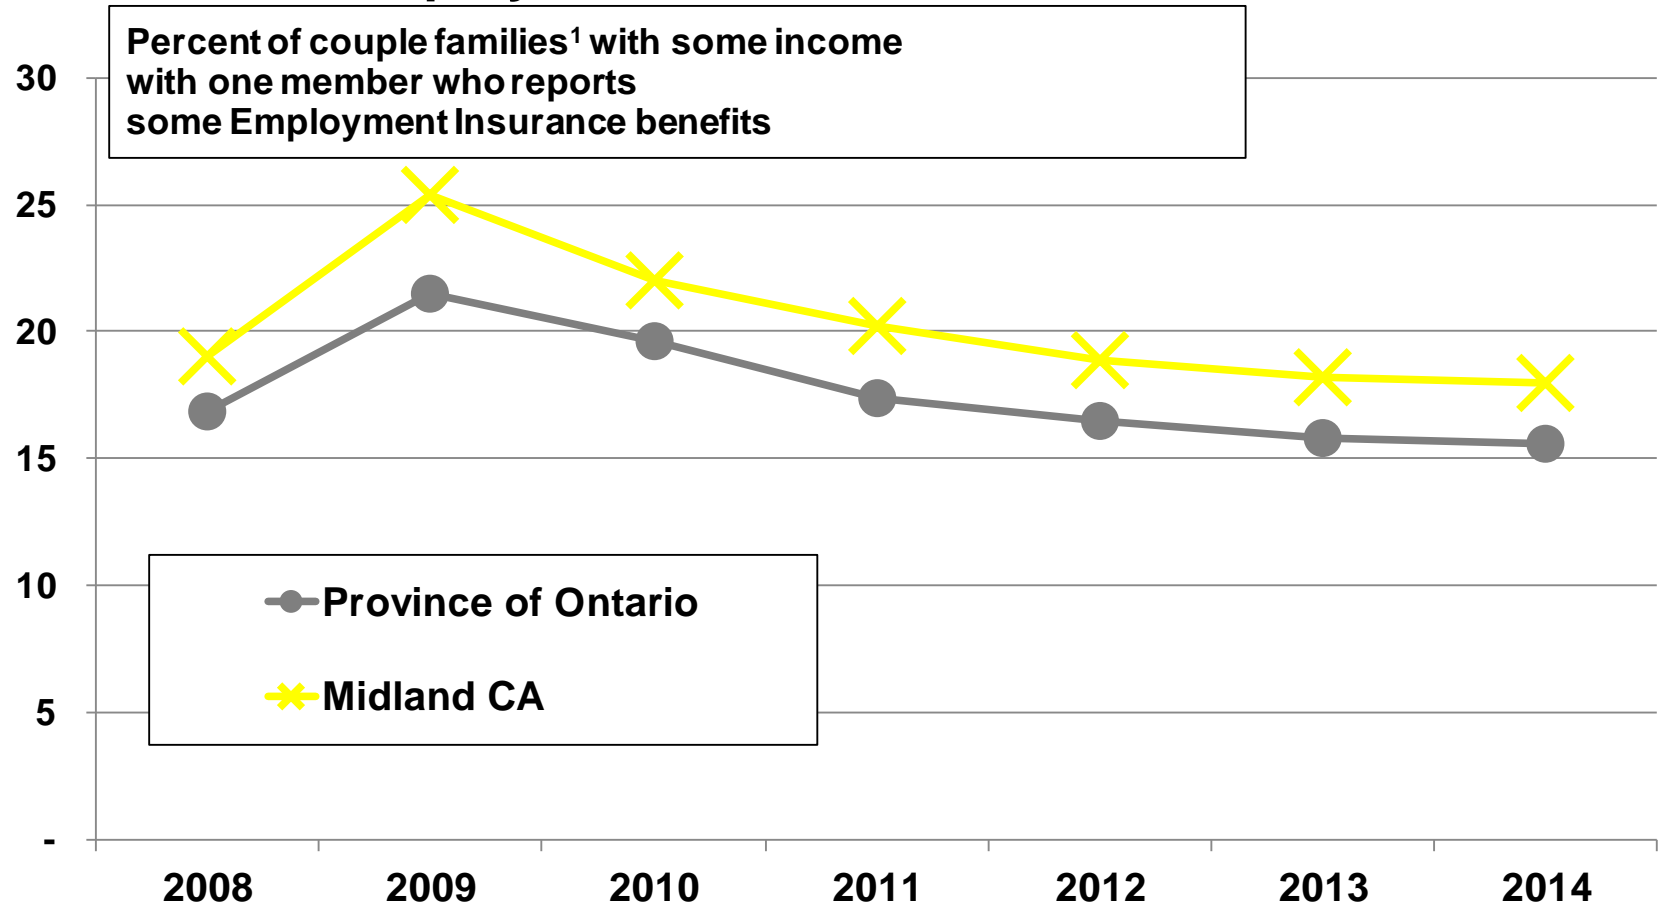

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Midland CA²

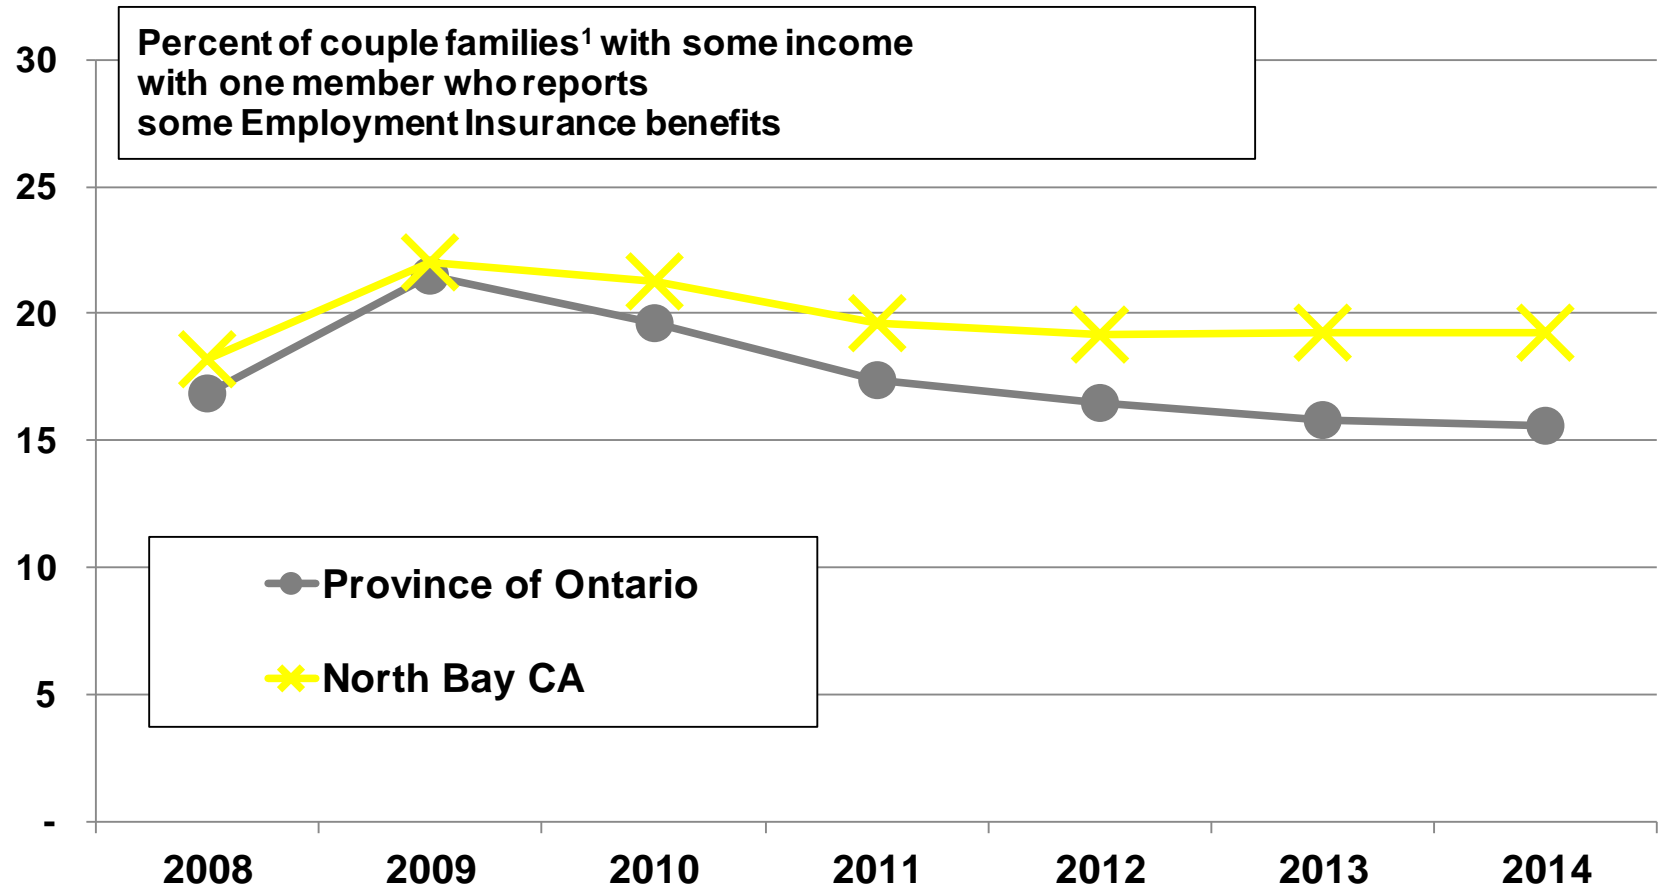

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: North Bay CA²

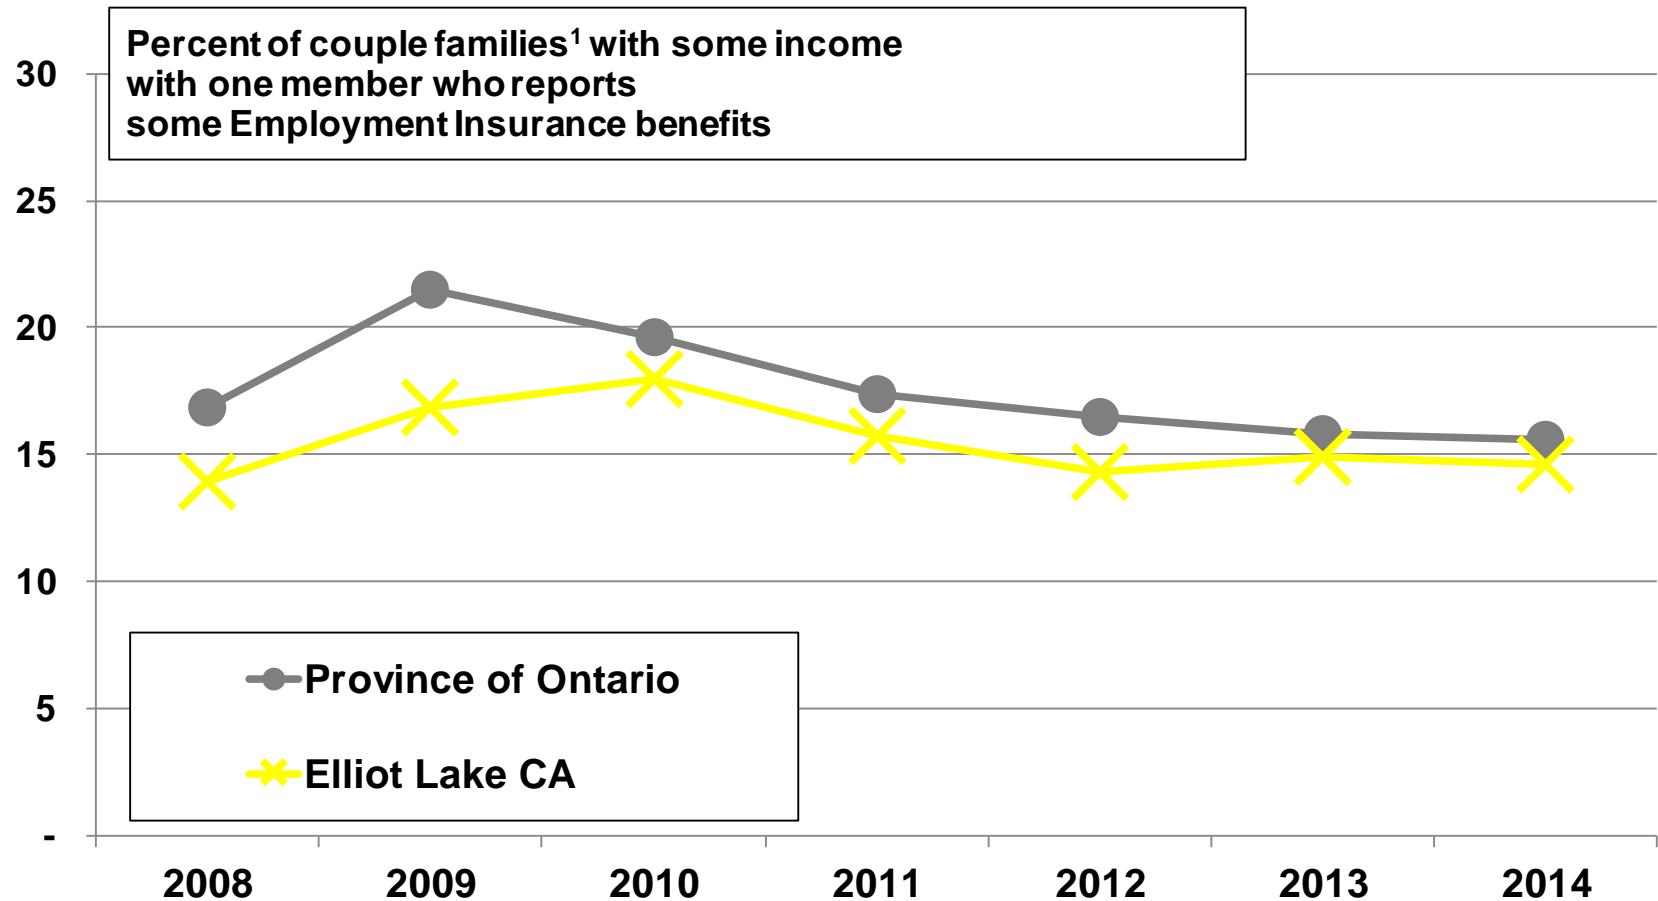

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Elliot Lake CA²

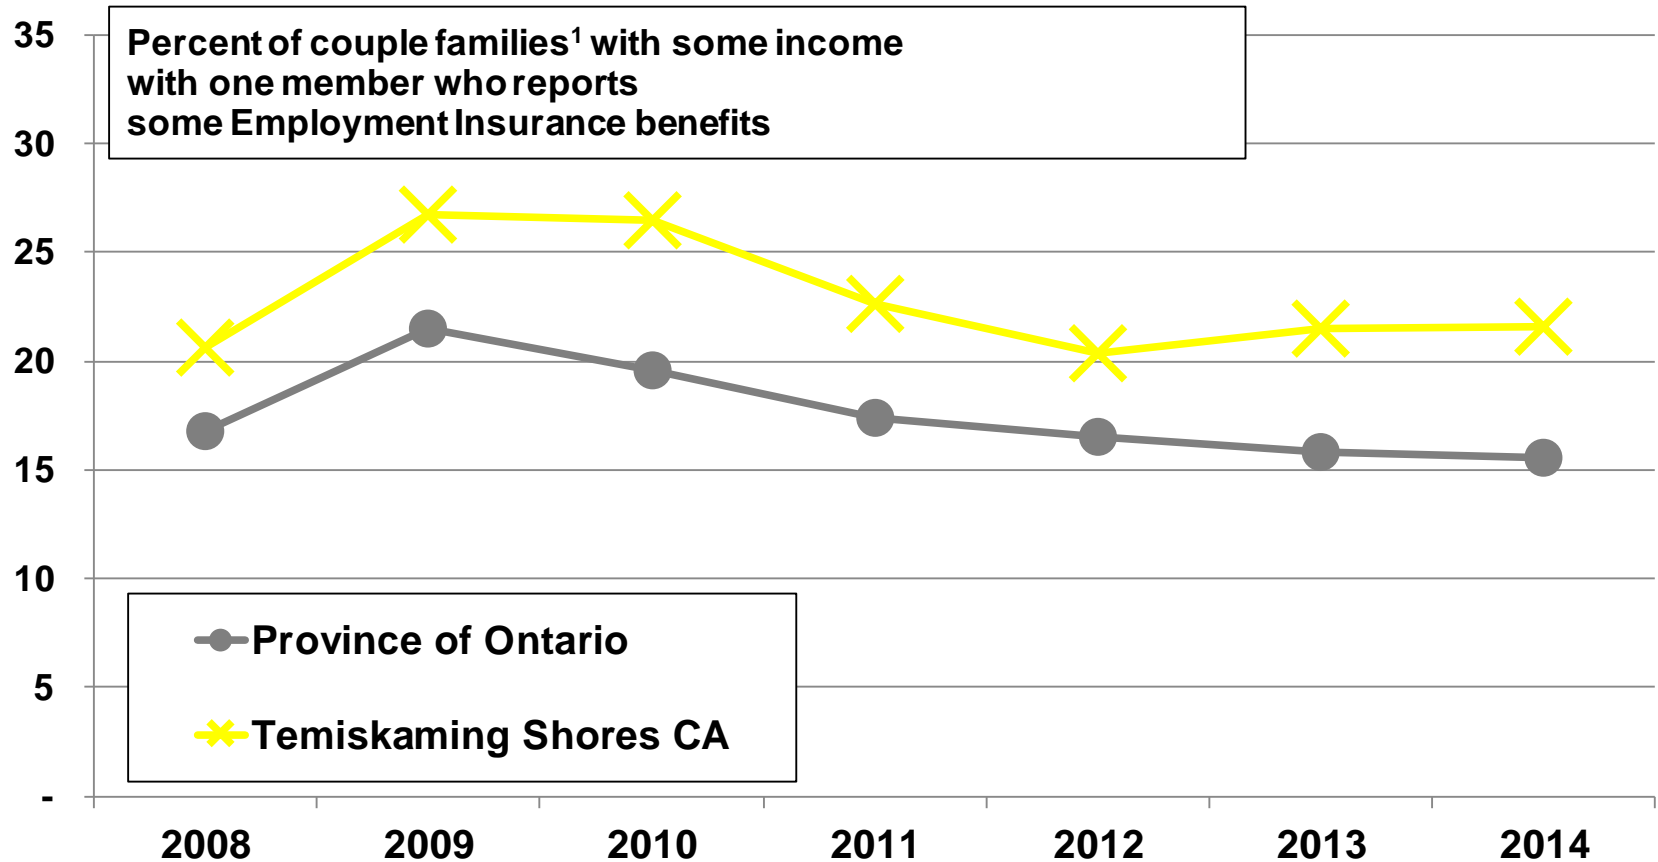

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Temiskaming Shores

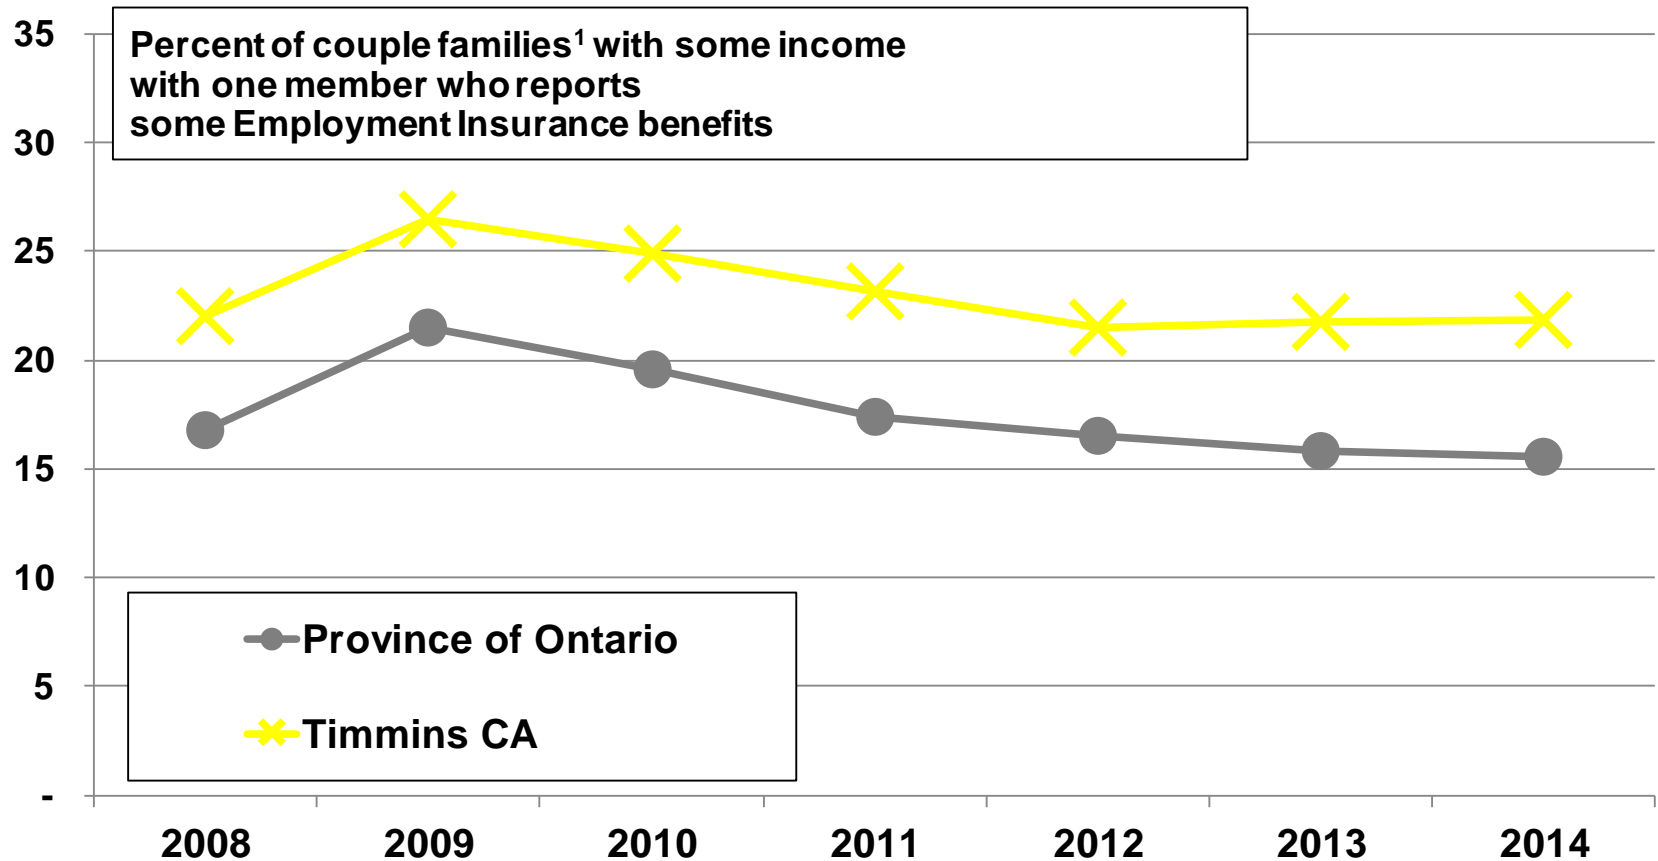

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Timmins CA²

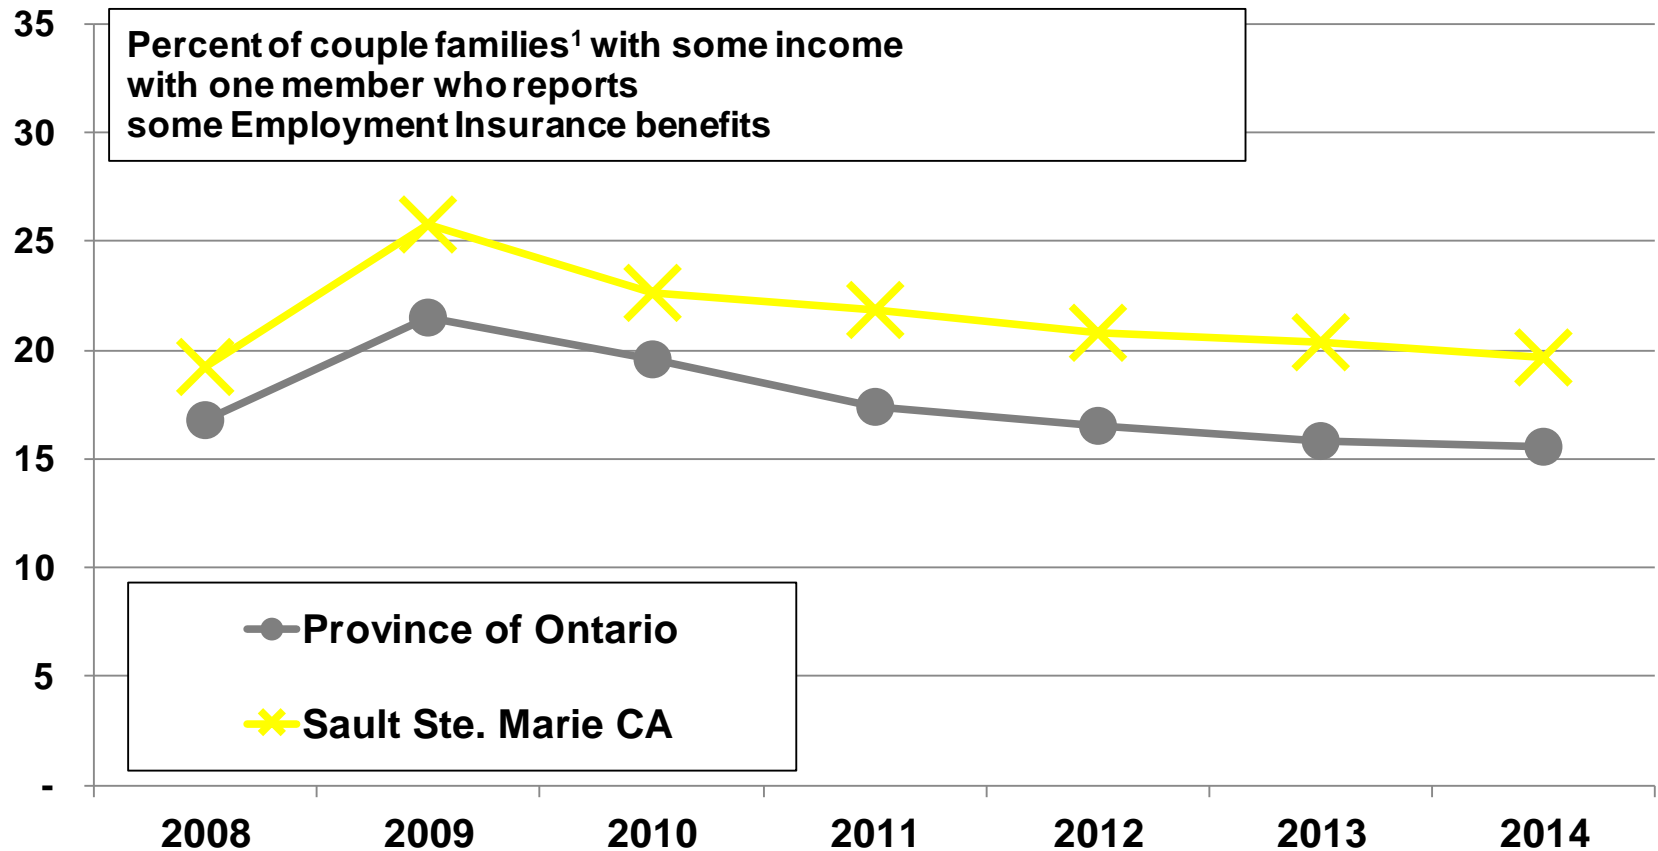

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Sault Ste. Marie CA²

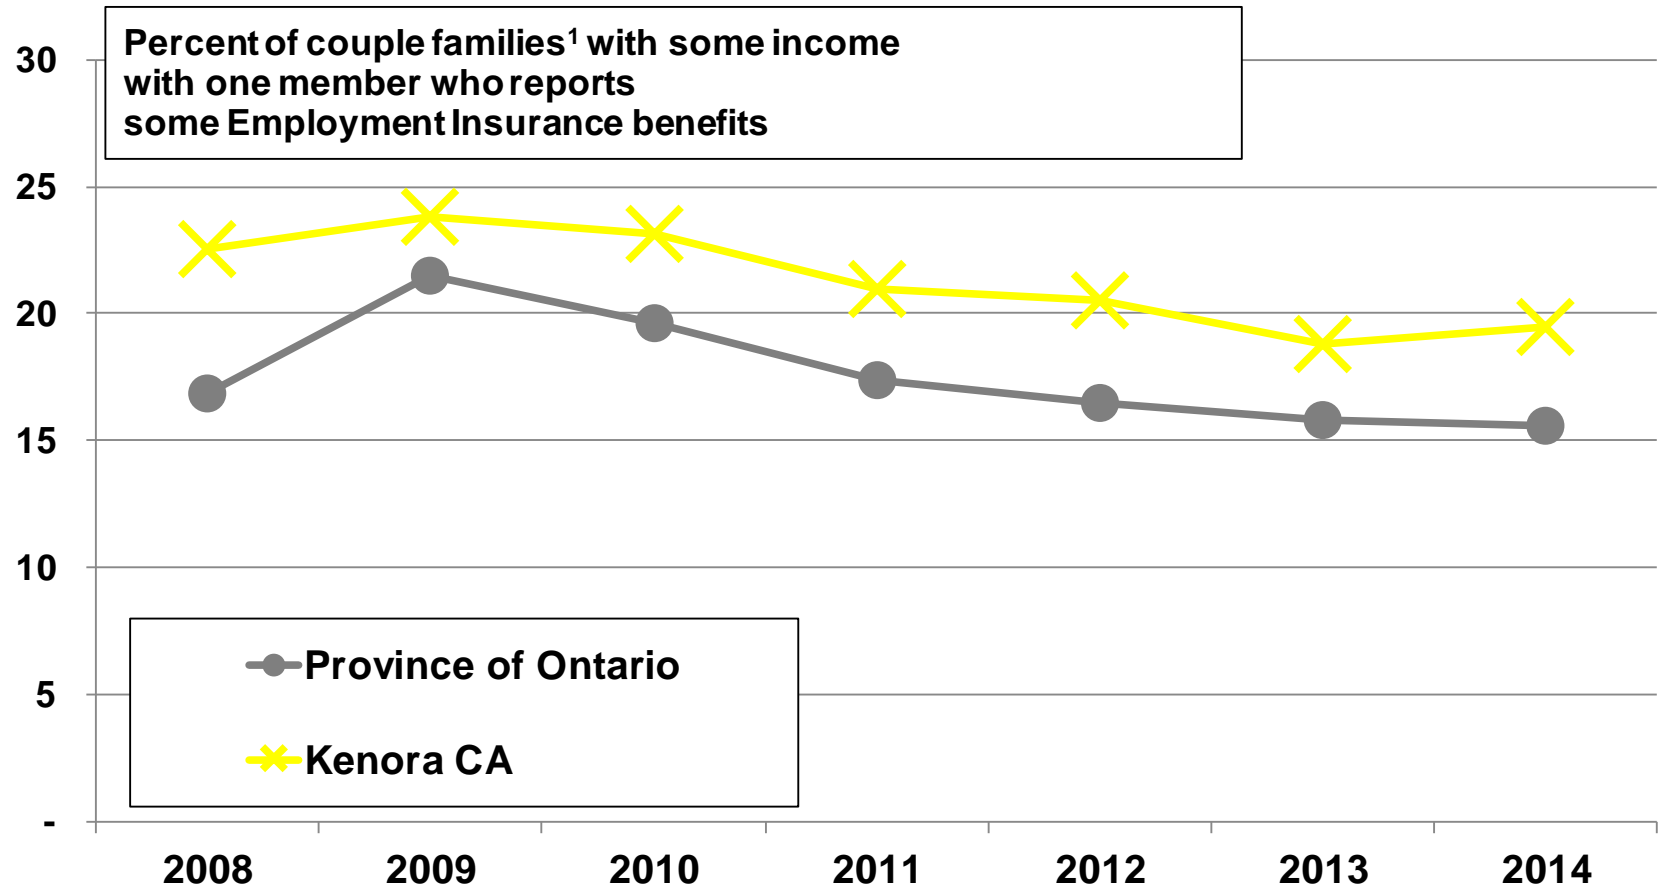

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Kenora CA²

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

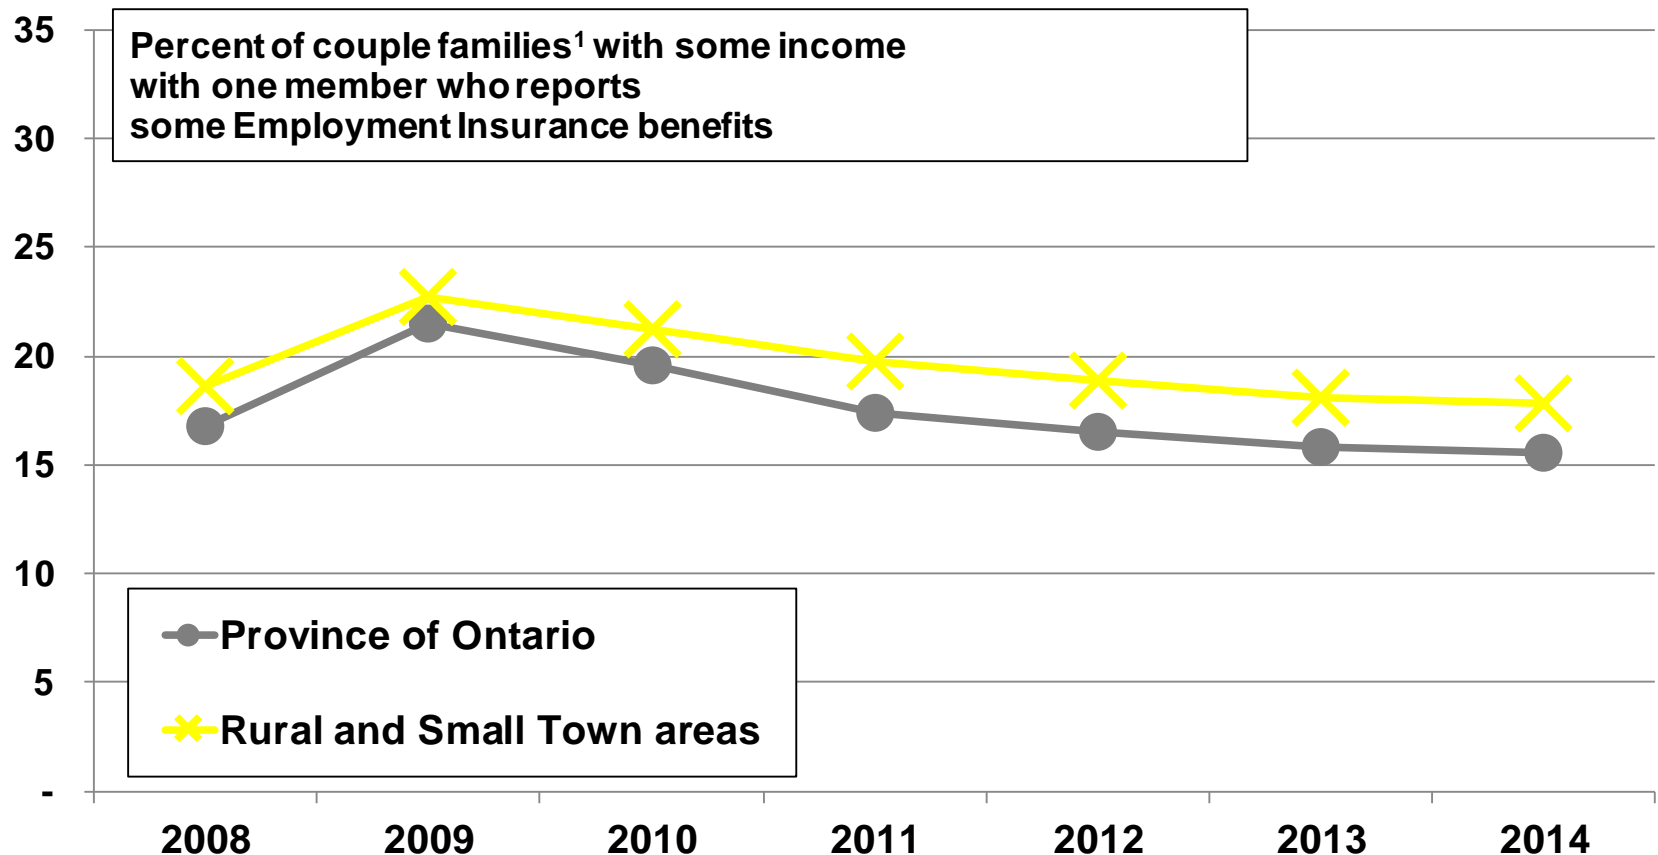

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.

Charts:

Taxfilers with Employment Insurance (EI) benefits

- EI reported by a member of a couple family
- EI reported by a member of a lone parent family
- EI reported by non-family individuals
- EI reported for each Census Agglomeration (<10K pop.)
- EI reported for “Rural and Small Town” areas
(outside centres of 10+K)

The percent of couple families¹ reporting some Employment Insurance benefits: Rural & Small Town² areas

1. A couple family consists of a couple living together (married or common-law, including same-sex couples) living at the same address with or without children.

2. A Census Agglomeration (CA) has a population of 10,000-99,999 and includes neighbouring municipalities where 50+% of the employed population commutes to the urban core of the CA.

Source: Statistics Canada, Sub-provincial Income Data, CANSIM Table 111-0017.