ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Meredith Davis of Good Roots Consulting will guide the group through a series of 10 straightforward questions in a choose-your-own evaluation adventure format. Each participant will answer the questions about a real program within their organization that they are hoping to evaluate. Thoughtful answers to these questions will allow participants to:

- Succinctly describe the logic behind the program
- Get clear on the purpose of the evaluation
- Choose and develop tools to gather useful information
- Develop a solid plan for data collection, analysis, and putting the results to work to strengthen program impact and demonstrate value

Each participant will also be provided with up to one hour of one-on-one support with the facilitator
